Killer, Battey Pace Twins Past Braves

By TOM BRIERE

Minneapolis Tribune Staff Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Henry Aaron of Milwaukee won the pre-game homer-hitting contest with three, but home runs by Harmon Killebrew and Earl Battey powered the Twins to a 5-2 exhibition victory Monday night over the eighth-place Braves of the National League.

A crowd of 9,114 fans attended this charity game for "kid baseball."

Jim Roland, the Twins' 20-year-old, $50,000 bonus pitcher, bested Don Schneider, Milwaukee's $100,000 bonus boy from the University of Arizona, in a left-handed pitching match.

KILLEBREW and Battey each got two hits off Schneider, who left a six-hitter after five innings. Frank Funk and Claude Raymond finished a 10-hitter for the Braves.

Roland, showing little trace of the sore elbow that sidelined him for a month, allowed only three hits and struck out nine over the seven innings he pitched. Ray Moore worked the last two innings for the Twins, giving up three hits and one run.

Even so, the Twins fell eight games off the pace of the league-leading Yankees in the American League as New York defeated the Angels 8-4 "for real."

AARON, a right-handed hitter with whiplash wrists, leads the National League with 28 home runs and 76 runs batted in. Killebrew and Bob Allison of the Twins top the American League with 22 home runs. Aaron is averaging .312.

Zoilo Versalles walked and Killebrew homered into the left-field bleachers in the first inning for the Twins' 2-0 start. Earl Battey hit a left-field homer in the second inning. John Goryl walked, took second on an infield out and scored on Versalles' single for a 4-0 margin.

Lee Maye, a left-handed hitter, pulled a home run into the right-field bleachers for Milwaukee's second-inning run off Roland.

The Twins made it 5-1 in the eighth off Funk on a walk to Jim Hall, a single by pinch-hitter Vic Wertz and Bernie Allen's line single to center. Milwaukee nicked Moore for a run in the eighth on a walk to Bob Taylor, wild
