Peterson homers, pitches in loss to PawSox

Rochester Red Wings– 4/18/15

PAWTUCKET, RI - The Pawtucket Red Sox hit four home runs, two by Humberto Quintero, and beat the Rochester Red Wings 13-3 Saturday afternoon at McCoy Stadium.

The PawSox have hit nine home runs in three games this series after hitting nine homers in 16 games last season.

Red Wings third baseman Jose Martinez opened the scoring with an RBI double in the second inning to score Reynaldo Rodriguez. Martinez was thrown out at third trying to advance. Quintero answered with his first long ball, a two-run shot, to give Pawtucket a 2-1 lead.

Brock Peterson homered to cut the deficit in half at 3-2, his second of the season. That score remained until the fifth inning when the PawSox bats came alive. Mark Hamburger (0-1) gave up back-to-back hits to begin the frame and departed in favor of Stephen Pryor. After getting a pop out, Pryor served up a three-run home run to Quintero, the first of three homers surrendered on the day for Pryor. He was charged with six runs in 1.1 innings. Quintin Berry and Matt Spring also homered for Pawtucket.

Eddy Rodriguez (1-0) earned the win with a quality start, allowing three runs (two earned) on four hits and one walk with five strikeouts in 6.0 innings. James Beresford drove in the third Wings run with a sacrifice fly in the seventh inning.

The final inning of the day was thrown by Peterson, who made his third career appearance on the mound and first with the Wings. He surrendered one hit and one walk in a scoreless frame.

Next up: LHP Pat Dean (1-0) starts for the Wings against PawSox RHP Matt Barnes when Rochester tried to avoid a four-game sweep on Sunday at 1:05 p.m.

Next Home Game: Fri. April 24 vs. Syracuse (Nationals) at 7:05 p.m.

Lookouts Win Game Two, 1-0, to Split Doubleheader with Barons

Chattanooga Lookouts– 4/18/15

After the Birmingham Barons (4-5) won game one, 11-5, the Chattanooga Lookouts (6-3) took game two by a score of 1-0 to split tonight's doubleheader in front of a crowd of 5,274.

The Barons got off to a fast start in game one scoring all 11 of their runs in the first three innings. The team's one through four hitters combined to drive in nine of their eleven runs. Pitcher Tyler Danish (2-0) took the win despite allowing five runs in five innings and Greg Peavey (1-1) took the loss.

For the Lookouts Adam Brett Walker II was a bright spot for the team, unloading two home runs. Tonight marked the eighth multi-home run game in Walker's career and his first since 5/30/2014.

In game two it was the Lookouts who got off to a fast start. Jorge Polanco hit a single to left-center with one out.

DJ Hicks hit a single of his own to put two men on for Travis Harrison who hit a RBI single.

The RBI was the team's only run of the game and the only one they needed. Starting pitcher DJ Baxendale was lights out for a second straight start, only allowing three hits in six innings and extending his scoreless streak to 12.1 innings.

Reliever Zach Jones snagged his second save of the season with two strikeouts in the bottom of the ninth.

Tomorrow, the Lookouts and the Barons play the rubber game of their five game series at 2:15 pm. RHP Alex Swimmers will make his first start of the 2015 season against RHP Frankie Montas (0-0, 1.69).

Mets pull out 7-5 win over Miracle on Saturday

Fort Myers Miracle– 4/18/15

FORT MYERS, Fla. (April 18, 2015) - The St. Lucie Mets staved off the Fort Myers Miracle, 7-5, at Hammond Stadium on Saturday night in front of 2,344 fans.

The scoring started in the top of the third inning with one out. Miracle starter Ethan Mildren issued a walk to Victor Cruzado and then committed a throwing error on a pick-off attempt that advanced Cruzado to second. After striking out Ruiz, Mildren (0-2) surrendered a soft single into center field by Jeff McNeil to score the first run of the game, 1-0.

In the bottom of the third, the Miracle answered with Jason Kanzler's second home run in as many games. Kanzler sent a 1-1 pitch from Mets starter Logan Taylor over the wall in right field for his second home run of the season to pull the Miracle even, 1-1.

St. Lucie surged ahead again in the fourth. Mets No. 5 prospect Michael Conforto launched a solo home run to deep center field to put the visitors up 2-1. The inning could have been worse for the Miracle. With the bases loaded, Jhoan Urena hit a ground ball to Aderling Mejia at second base. Attempting to start a double play, Mejia flipped to Engelb Vielma for the force out at second base, but Vielma's throw pulled Swim off the bag at first and a run scored. Then, field umpire Ben Levin ruled that Vielma was interfered with by the runner, Ahmed Rosario, and two outs were put on the board. The Mets also had a run erased as runners went back to second and third. St. Lucie manager Luis Rojas was ejected for arguing the play.

Fort Myers took its only lead of the night in the bottom of the fourth. Taylor loaded the bases with a pair of walks and a base hit by Alex Swim, then struck out Chad Christensen. Kanzler then drove in his second run of the game with a bases loaded walk and Vielma followed with a sacrifice fly to put the Miracle up 3-2.

In the fifth, the Mets would take the lead for good. With one out, Mildren walked Ruiz then balked him to second base. McNeil sliced a single into right field and Ruiz scored to knot the game at 3-3. After a Conforto single, Matt Oberste connected on a 1-0 pitch from Miracle reliever Alex Muren and deposited a three-run homer into left for a 6-3 St. Lucie lead.

The Miracle chipped away with a RBI fielder's choice in the sixth from Vielma and a run-scoring double off Christensen's bat in the eighth, but could not scratch even with the Mets. Colton Plaia delivered a sacrifice fly for St. Lucie's seventh run in the top of the eighth.

Mildren exited after 4.1 innings and five runs allowed, four earned. Taylor received a no decision for the Mets after four innings and three runs surrendered on four hits with four walks and three strikeouts. Kelly Secrest picked up the victory out of the bullpen. Secrest (1-0) tossed two frames and gave up a run.

Muren went 1.2 innings out of the Miracle pen with only one run charged on one hit. Brian Gilbert yielded a run in two innings and Madison Boer struck out the side in the ninth.

The Miracle (4-6) and Mets (6-4) face off in the series rubber match at 4:05 p.m. on a Dairy Queen Sunday at Hammond Stadium. Fans can pick up complimentary tickets at local DQ locations in Lee and Collier counties and upgrade to a box seat for just $2. For tickets and information, call (239) 768-4210.

Kernels fall in series opener to Burlington

Cedar Rapids Kernels– 4/18/15

BURLINGTON, IOWA - The Burlington Bees topped the Kernels 4-3 on Saturday evening at Community Field. Burlington scored three of their four runs in the first two innings and held the Kernels to just six hits on the evening.

Austin Robichaux (1-1) recorded his first Midwest League win. The Bees right-hander allowed two runs on four hits and one walk while striking out three.

Michael Cederoth (1-1) suffered the loss for Cedar Rapids. Cederoth allowed four runs on six hits and two walks while striking out six in his second start of the season.

Burlington (6-4) struck first with a two-run first inning, giving the Bees an early 2-0 lead. Jake Yacinich led off the inning with a five-pitch walk for the Bees. Caleb Adams followed with the first hit of the game, a single through the right side, giving the Bees runners on first and second with no outs. Two batters later, Frank Whitten reached on an infield single, loading the bases for the Bees. Zach Houchins then delivered the game's first runs with a two-run single to right, scoring Yacinich and Adams.

Burlington added another run in the bottom of the second, going in front, 3-0. Michael Herмосillo got the inning started for the Bees with a two out walk. Herмосillo advanced to second on a wild pitch and later came around to score on an RBI single by Yacinich.

Cedar Rapids (7-3) countered with two runs in the top of the third, cutting Burlington's lead to 3-2. T.J. White led off the inning with a single to left. White then advanced to second on a Brian Navarreto groundout. One batter later, White advanced to third on a wild pitch. Tanner English then drew a walk and stole second with two outs in the inning. Nick Gordon gave Cedar Rapids their first two runs of the game on a two-out, two-run single to center, scoring White and English. Gordon's two-run single gave him his ninth and 10th runs batted in, tying him with Zack Larson for the team-lead.

The Bees extended their lead to 4-2 in the bottom of the sixth, courtesy of a Zach Houchins solo homer. The home run was the second for Houchins this season and gave the third baseman his third RBI of the night.

The Kernels scored their final run of the night in the top of the seventh. Trey Vavra led off the inning with a double to left-center. TJ White then reached on an infield single, giving Cedar Rapids runners on the corners with one out. Brian Navarreto reached on a Burlington fielding error, loading the bases for the Kernels. Tanner English followed Navarreto with a sacrifice fly to right field, scoring Vavra from third, cutting the Bees' lead to 4-3.

Randy Leblanc threw two scoreless innings of relief for Cedar Rapids. The right-hander allowed just two hits and struck out one in his third appearance of the season.

Tyler Carpenter and Ronnie Muck each recorded holds for the Bees. Carpenter allowed one unearned run on two hits in one inning while Muck struck out two in one scoreless inning. Eduardo Paredes earned his second save of the year with a scoreless ninth inning.

The Kernels look to bounce back on Sunday afternoon on the road against Burlington. First pitch is at 2:00 p.m. from Community Field. RHP Felix Jorge (1-0, 0.00) gets the start for Cedar Rapids while LHP Sean Newcomb (1-0, 1.80) gets the ball for the Burlington Bees in game two of the series.
