Oliveros leads Wings to split

Rochester Red Wings | April 25, 2015

The Rochester Red Wings and Syracuse Chiefs split a Saturday afternoon doubleheader at Frontier Field. Danny Ortiz hit a two-run homer in the Wings' 5-4 first game loss; Lester Oliveros struck out nine in four innings to lead the Wings to a 5-2 game two win and the split. The teams play Sunday afternoon at 1:35 pm., for another Knot Hole Gang Kids' Club game and kids can run the bases with Spikes and Mittsy after the game. Complete promotion details below...

Game One:

Reynaldo Rodriguez's hit streak was extended to nine games, reaching base on a single in the second inning. Rodriguez scored on an RBI single by Jose Martinez, giving the Red Wings the early 1-0 edge.

Red Wings starter Mark Hamburger struggled with consistency early, loading the bases in the second and third innings. Hamburger walked three batters in the third, the last of which resulted in a run scoring, tying the game 1-1.

Danny Ortiz hit his second home run of the year in the bottom of the fourth, putting the Red Wings on top 3-1. Later in the inning, Aaron Hicks hit a sacrifice fly to add to the Red Wings lead, making the score 4-1.

The Chiefs had two runners on with one out in the sixth, when Hamburger was replaced by A.J. Achter. Achter walked the only batter he faced to load the bases, prompting another pitching move and Ryan O'Rourke taking over on the mound. O'Rourke struck out Steven Lerud for the second out, then Michael Tonkin was brought in to face Michael Taylor. On a 1-2 pitch, Taylor drilled a two-run single to bring the Chiefs to within a run at 4-3. Two singles later, the Chiefs had taken the lead 5-4.

Hamburger worked 5 1/3 innings and allowed five hits, three earned runs and five walks while striking out four. He threw 106 pitches, 62 for strikes.

The Wings loaded the bases in their half of the sixth with two outs, but reliever Evan Meek got a groundout from Brock Peterson to maintain the Syracuse lead. The Wings had one last chance in the bottom of the seventh. Rodriguez drew a walk leading off, and reached third base with two out but was stranded.

Game Two:

Red Wings starter Lester Oliveros started strong striking out the side in the first inning, then fanning the first two batters he faced in the fourth. The Wings took an early 1-0 lead against Chiefs starter Bruce Billings. Aaron Hicks singled, moved to third on a hit by Doug Bernier, and scored on an RBI single by Reynaldo Rodriguez.

The effectiveness of Oliveros was the story of the game early on. He struck out seven batters through the first three innings, allowing only a single to Dan Butler in the third inning. Oliveros made two starts in his first pro season, in 2006 while playing for the Detroit organization; Saturday was just his third pro start, and the seventh strikeout set a new career high for Oliveros.

Bernier's second hit of the game brought home Argenis Diaz in the bottom of the third for a 2-0 Wings lead.

The Wings combined a double by Danny Ortiz, a walk, an error, a hit batter and a RBI single by Diaz to take a 4-0 lead in the fourth. The Diaz hit prompted a pitching change, with Mitch Lively taking over for Billings; Lively walked Hicks with the bases loaded to force in a run, boost the lead to 5-0, and keep the bases full with none out. Lively retired the next three batters to end the inning.

Oliveros worked four innings and allowed just the single, did not walk a batter, and struck out nine. He threw 61 pitches, 40 for strikes.

Logan Darnell took over on the mound to start the fifth inning and worked two scoreless innings, allowing two hits and a walk. Ryan Pressly pitched the seventh inning for Rochester, and walked the first two batters he faced. A sacrifice fly and single brought in a pair of runs for the Chiefs. Pressly struck out Michael Taylor to end the game.

Bernier had three hits for the Red Wings, who out-hit the Chiefs 8-4 in the second game.

Mets win second extra inning walk-off in a row, 4-3

Fort Myers Miracle | April 25, 2015

PORT ST. LUCIE, Fla. (April 25, 2015) - The St. Lucie Mets walked off on a Matt Oberste RBI single in the bottom of the eleventh inning to defeat the Fort Myers Miracle, 4-3, at Tradition Field on Saturday evening.

After playing 17 innings on Friday, the Mets and Miracle again needed extra frames to decide the third game of the series. Leading 3-2 going into the bottom of the ninth, Miracle reliever Jose Velez faced Michael Conforto to start the inning. After pitching two perfect frames in his season debut in the seventh and eighth, Velez surrendered a double from Conforto into left center.

Velez exited in favor of reliever Todd Van Steensel, the only Miracle bullpen arm that did not pitch on Friday. Van Steensel (0-2) walked Maikis De La Cruz, but then retired Matt Oberste on a fly ball to left field for the first out. Victor Cruzado came to the plate for the Mets and sliced a double down the left field line. Conforto came in to score and tie the game, 3-3, with De La Cruz racing behind him as the potential game winner. Logan Wade tracked the ball to the corner, hit Engelb Vielma at the cut-off. Vielma then unloaded a rocket to home plate to get De La Cruz and record the second out of the ninth. Van Steensel struck out Ahmed Rosario to force extra innings.

A scoreless tenth led to the eleventh. After the Miracle were retired in the top of the frame by Mets reliever Robert Coles, Van Steensel returned for his third inning of work. Jeff McNeil roped a double into center field to lead-off. After intentionally walking Conforto, Van Steensel fanned De La Cruz. Then, on a 1-1 pitch, Matt Oberste lined a single into left center and McNeil scored to cap a 4-3 walk-off win for St. Lucie. Coles (1-0) earned the win.

The Miracle pushed across the first run of the game in the second inning with some help from a porous St. Lucie defense. Alex Swim led off with a ground ball up the middle that was misplayed by McNeil at second base. After Mets starter Rob Whalen got Jason Kanzler to fly out to center, Aderling Mejia hit a ground ball to McNeil. In an attempt to turn two, McNeil tossed to Rosario at the second base bag. Rosario failed to touch second base and both runners were ruled safe.

With Michael Quesada at the plate, Whalen lost control of a pitch in the dirt and the runners advanced to second and third on a wild pitch. Quesada then hit a chopper to third base that brought in Swim, 1-0.

In the fourth with one out, Kanzler took a curveball from Whalen in his back. On the next pitch to Mejia, Kanzler stole second. Mejia then pulled a grounder to first and was retired, but Kanzler moved up to third. With Quesada at the plate, Whalen flipped a fastball in the dirt and Kanzler trotted home for the second Miracle run, 2-0.

Chad Christensen pushed the Miracle lead to 3-0 with a solo home run in the top half of the sixth inning. On a 2-0 pitch, Christensen deposited a deep fly ball over the wall in left center for his first home run of the season.

St. Lucie answered in the bottom of the sixth. With one out, McNeil looped a single into left field off Miracle starter Ryan Eades. Then, on the first pitch, Conforto launched a two-run shot off the batter's eye in dead center field to cut the Miracle lead down to a run.

Eades went six innings and allowed just two runs on five hits with one walk and five strikeouts in a no decision. Whalen went 7.2 innings with three runs given up, two earned, on four hits and four punch outs, also receiving a no decision.

The extra inning game was Fort Myers' seventh in the first 17 of the season. The Miracle are 2-5 in those games.

The Miracle (6-11) return to Hammond Stadium on Sunday afternoon at 4:05 p.m. and begin a three game set with the Palm Beach Cardinals. A DQ Sunday, fans can pick up complimentary general admission tickets at Dairy Queen locations in Lee and Collier counties.

Kane County sweeps doubleheader

Morgan Hawk | Cedar Rapids Kernels | April 25, 2015

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA - The Kane County Cougars won both games of a doubleheader over the Kernels on Saturday afternoon. The Cougars won 6-1 in the opener and 2-1 in game two. The Kernels fell to 11-6 on the season while Kane County improved to 7-10.

The Kane County Cougars took game one of the doubleheader with a 6-1 victory. Brent Jones (1-2) picked up his first win of the year. The 22-year-old allowed just one run on five hits and one walk while striking out three in six innings. Michael Cederoth (0-2) suffered the loss. The right-hander allowed four runs (three earned), on eight hits while striking out three in four innings pitched.

Kane County took an early 1-0 lead in the top of the third on an unearned run. Colin Bray got the inning started with a one-out single to centerfield. Sergio Alcantara then reached on a fielding error by Kernels first baseman Tyler Kuresa. Bray advanced to second on the play. However, a second Kernels fielding error on the play - a missed catch by second baseman Jonatan Hinojosa - allowed Bray to move to third. With runners on the corners, Grant Heyman scored Bray with a RBI single to right.

Cedar Rapids countered with a run in the home half of the third, evening the score, at 1-1. Hinojosa led off the inning with an infield single. He moved in to second on a Brian Navarreto groundout and came around to score on a Tanner English RBI single to center.

The Cougars extended their lead to 4-1 with a three-run fourth. Cody Regis and Fernery Ozuna led off the frame with back-to-back singles, giving the Cougars runners on first and second. A passed ball by Navarreto advanced both runners 90 feet. Queliz then brought in Regis to on an RBI groundout, putting the Cougars back in front. Victor Reyes followed Queliz with an RBI triple to left-center, scoring Ozuna. Colin Bray drove in Kane County's final run of the inning on an RBI single to right, bringing in Reyes.

Kane County tacked on their final two runs of game one in the top of the seventh, extending their lead to 6-1. Back-to-back two-out walks by Stryker Trahan and Regis gave the Cougars runners on first and second. Ozuna followed Regis's walk with a two-out, two-run triple to right field that scored both Trahan and Regis.

Sam Clay threw two scoreless and hitless innings of relief in game one for Cedar Rapids. The southpaw allowed two walks and struck out a pair in his fourth appearance of the season. C.K. Irby allowed two runs on two hits and two walks in his lone inning of work.

Kane County took game two of the doubleheader, 2-1. Jared Miller (2-1) picked up the victory for the Cougars on the hill. He allowed one run on three hits in 5 1/3 innings, striking out three and walking two. Felix Jorge (1-1) suffered the loss for the Kernels, despite pitching well. He went six innings and allowed two runs on four hits while striking out five and walking one. Kane County's Zac Curtis went 1 1/3 innings in relief, allowing no runs for his second save.

Kane County broke the scoreless tie in the top of the fourth inning with a pair of runs. Grant Heyman drew a walk and Steve McQuail was hit by a pitch with one out to put two men on. With two outs, Marty Herum drove in both with a two-run double to right-center field, putting Kane County up 2-0.

The Kernels got on the board in the bottom of the sixth inning when Nick Gordon scored on a wild pitch. With one out, Gordon doubled into the left field corner and advanced to third on a groundout before scoring on Nick Baker's wild pitch. Baker recorded one out in the sixth inning, allowing no runs.

Miles Nordgren pitched a perfect inning for the Kernels in relief.

The home stand wraps up with Jimmy John's Run the Bases Sunday (media sponsor 104.5 KDAT).
