Meyer struggles as Rochester falls in Louisville

Rochester Red Wings– 5/9/15

LOUISVILLE, KY - The Louisville Bats used seven straight hits to begin the third inning against Rochester starter Alex Meyer to cruise to a 10-5 victory over the Red Wings at Louisville Slugger Field Saturday evening.

Things started well for the Red Wings (16-12) against Louisville starter David Holmberg (1-3) as Aaron Hicks led off the game with a single and later scored on a Reynaldo Rodriguez base hit to give the Wings a 1-0 lead in the first inning.

The Bats (12-17) used a one-out walk of Irving Falu and a Josh Satin sacrifice fly two batters later to knot the game at one after an inning of play.

Meyer (2-2) was fortunate that Eugenio Suarez, the leadoff hitter in the third inning, was thrown out at third trying to stretch a double into a triple for the first out. Six consecutive singles by the Bats (12-17) followed to score four runs. Meyer recorded a strikeout before Yorman Rodriguez hit a long three-run home run to chase the righty. He finished his night by allowing eight runs on nine hits and one walk with two strikeouts in 2.2 innings, the shortest outing by a Rochester starter this season.

Louisville would add two runs in a fourth to stretch the advantage to 10-1.

Danny Ortiz hit a grand slam with two outs in the ninth. Ortiz has homered in back-to-back games and now leads the team with five home runs and 20 RBI. Hicks quietly reached base in four trips, finishing 2-for-3 with a double, two walks and a run scored.

Next up: LHP Jason Wheeler (1-1, 5.40) opposes Louisville righty Jon Mascot (4-0, 2.78) as the Wings complete a brief six-game road trip Sunday afternoon at 2:05 p.m.

Next Home Game: Monday, May 11 vs. Toledo at 7:05 p.m.

Three HRs Power Chattanooga to a 7-4 Win Over Jackson

Chattanooga Lookouts– 5/9/15

The Chattanooga Lookouts (16-12) scored six of their seven runs off of home runs en-route to a 7-4 win over the Jackson Generals (11-15). The victory was the team's third in a row and seventh out of their last eight games.

For the seventh time this season the Lookouts struck first at home. This time the first runs of the game came off the bat of Travis Harrison who unloaded a three-run shot in the first inning. Chattanooga is now 7-0 at home when they score the first run.

Jackson scored their only run off of starter Greg Peavey (W, 2-1) in the second inning. Peavey finished the day only allowing that one run on five hits in five innings. Insurance runs were tacked on by the Lookouts in the fifth and sixth.

With two outs and nobody on Miguel Sano blasted his sixth home run of the year to give the team four runs on the night. Their lead continued to build an inning later in the sixth. Two walks by Kepler and Wickens set the stage for a Byron Buxton sacrifice fly. With that sac fly Buxton has now driven in a run in eight straight games. The Lookouts' final runs of the night came on another home run, this time a two-run shot by Jorge Polanco.

In the seventh inning Jackson pulled within three-runs when Tyler Smith belted a three-run shot. The Generals rally stopped there however as Madison Boer and DJ Johnson (S,1) combined for two shutout innings.

The final game of the series is tomorrow at 2:15 pm with gates set to open at 1:00 pm. League ERA leader DJ Baxendale (2-0, 0.86) will get the start for Chattanooga against fellow right-hander Stephen Landazuri (0-1, 2.66).

Knecht's sac fly ices Hammerheads, 3-2, in the tenth

Fort Myers Miracle– 5/9/15

FORT MYERS, Fla. (May 9, 2015) - Marcus Knecht capped off a stellar night at the plate with a game-winning sacrifice fly in the bottom of the tenth inning to walk-off the Fort Myers Miracle in a 3-2 win and complete the sweep of the Jupiter Hammerheads at Hammond Stadium.

Knecht brought a large crowd of 4,009 fans to their feet with a bases loaded drive in the tenth. The inning started with an infield hit from Alex Swim off Jupiter reliever Miguel Del Pozo. After striking out Bryan Haar, Del Pozo (0-1) surrendered a base hit to Niko Goodrum and bloop single to Chad Christensen to load the bases. Knecht stepped up and whistled a 1-0 pitch into left. Hammerheads left fielder Austin Dean caught the ball, but his throw sailed behind a sliding Swim to give the Miracle a fourth walk-off win of the season.

Involved in each Miracle run on the night, Knecht helped break a scoreless tie in the fifth. With one out, Knecht hammered a 1-0 pitch from Jupiter starter Scott Lyman into the gap in left center for a triple, his first of the year. Michael Quesada then drove Knecht in with a sacrifice fly to deep center to put the Miracle up 1-0.

In the seventh, Knecht stirred up a two-out rally by beating out an infield hit to the shortstop. Hammerheads reliever Tyler Bremer then plunked Quesada to put runners on first and second. On Bremer's next pitch, Logan Wade looped a base hit into center and Knecht crossed home to give the Miracle a 2-0 advantage.

Fort Myers starter Brett Lee held the lead through seven scoreless innings, but struggled in the eighth. Chris Hoo and Yefri Perez picked up back-to-back singles. J.T. Riddle failed to bunt the runners over and was retired on a strikeout, but then Swim tried to catch Perez off the bag at first. Swim threw errantly and the base runners advanced to second and third.

With Dean at the plate, Lee tossed a wild pitch in the dirt and Hoo scored to cut the Miracle lead to 2-1. Brian Gilbert entered from the bullpen and gave up an RBI single to Brian Anderson to tie the game before retiring the side.

Lee got a no decision after 7.1 innings and two runs allowed, one earned. Retiring the first 14 hitters in a row, Lee tallied three strikeouts and recorded 12-of-22 outs on the ground.

Lyman also received a no decision for Jupiter in six innings and was credited with four hits, one run and five strikeouts.

Luke Westphal worked around two hits in the ninth and tenth for a pair of scoreless innings in relief. Westphal (1-2) picked up the win and stranded the go-ahead run at third base in the top of the tenth.

The Miracle (14-16) have now won five consecutive and played 11 extra inning games in the first 30 of the season. Fort Myers hosts the Dunedin Blue Jays for the first of a four-game series on Monday at 7:05 p.m. For tickets, call the Miracle offices at (239) 768-4210 or order online at www.miraclebaseball.com.

Kernels sweep doubleheader at Beloit

Cedar Rapids Kernels– 5/9/15

BELOIT, Wis. - The Kernels swept a doubleheader at Beloit on Saturday, winning 5-2 in game one and 3-2 in a nine-inning game two. That capped off a 6-0 road trip for the team as they head home for a seven-game home stand with a 19-11 record, a season-best eight games above .500. The Kernels are now 12-0 against teams from Wisconsin, winning six games over both the Beloit Snappers and the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers. Beloit fell to 13-17 on the season.

Cedar Rapids topped Beloit 5-2 in game one. Zack Larson had three hits. Max Murphy scored three of the runs, collecting two hits. Both Pat Kelly and Brett Doe drove in two, including a two-run home run by Doe.

Michael Cederoth (1-2) earned the win on the hill for the Kernels in six innings of work. He allowed two runs on three hits while striking out five and walking three. Cam Booser picked up his third save, tossing a perfect final inning while striking out two.

The Kernels jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the second inning. Murphy reached on a fielding error by third baseman Joe Bennie and Larson singled to put runners on the corner to begin the inning, Kelly's RBI sacrifice fly to left field put the Kernels on the board. Later in the inning, Doe pulled a two-run home run down the left field line as the Kernels took a three-run lead. It was Doe's second homer of the season in his first six games.

Beloit cut into the lead with Sandber Pimentel's solo home run to lead off the bottom of the second. Pimentel's fourth long ball of the season went to right-center.

Kelly drove in another run for the Kernels in fourth inning, putting Cedar Rapids up 4-1. Kelly's RBI fielder's choice plated Murphy from third base. Murphy and Larson both singled to begin the inning.

Hits by Murphy and Larson led to another run for the Kernels in the sixth inning as they took a 5-1 advantage. Murphy's second hit of the day was a double to deep center that started the frame. He scored on Larson's third hit - a RBI single down the right field line.

Beloit plated a run in the bottom of the sixth inning to make the score 5-2. Yairo Munoz drew a walk before Pimentel doubled to put runners at second and third. Munoz scored on a wild pitch by Cederoth for the game's final run.

Kevin Johnson (1-2) took the loss for the Snappers in game one, allowing four runs (one earned) in four innings.

In game two, the Kernels edged Beloit 3-2 in nine innings. The Kernels led early with a home run by Murphy, but Beloit came back to tie the game after not collecting a hit until the sixth inning. Single runs by the Snappers in the sixth and seventh innings sent the game to extra innings.

In the top of the ninth inning Kelly's RBI single to left plated Larson and gave the Kernels a 3-2 lead. Larson began the final inning with an infield single, reaching second base on a throwing error by third baseman Jose Brizuela. With two outs and two strikes, Kelly brought in Larson for the go-ahead run.

Trevor Hildenberger worked around a leadoff walk in the bottom of the ninth inning, striking out two and allowing no hits for his third save.

Felix Jorge started for the Kernels and was terrific. He threw five hitless innings before allowing a run and three hits in the sixth inning, his only runs and hits allowed in the game. He struck out five and walked none, exiting after six innings for a no-decision. Brizuela reached on a fielding error in the second inning, but that was the only man to reach before the sixth.

Murphy put the Kernels in front early with a two-run home run to center field in the first inning. His first home run of the season came with two outs and scored Trey Vavra, who reached with an infield single one batter earlier.

Argenis Raga doubled to lead off the sixth inning to break up the no-hitter. After a single by Max Kuhn, Munoz's infield RBI single plated Raga, trimming the Kernels lead to 2-1.

Beloit tied the game 2-2 and sent it to extras with a run in the bottom of the seventh inning. Singles by Joe Bennie and Brizuela, along with a walk by Robert Martinez loaded the bases with no outs. After a strikeout, a bases loaded walk by Edwin Diaz scored Bennie and tied the game. A force out at home and strikeout with the bases loaded stranded three in the inning.

Zack Tillery (3-0) was charged with a blown save but picked up the win in relief. He allowed one run on three hits in two innings of work, striking out four and walking two.

Jose Torres (2-2) took the loss for the Snappers as he allowed one run over 1 1/3 innings. Junior Mendez started for Beloit and went six innings, allowing two runs on three hits while striking out two and walking one.

The Kernels return home on Monday night at 6:35 p.m. against the Peoria Chiefs to begin a seven-game home stand. RHP Jared Wilson (3-0, 2.42) starts for the Kernels. RHP Luis Perdomo (1-1, 1.90) takes the hill for the Chiefs.

Minor League Notes: Kernels pitching has been great

Cedar Rapids Gazette– 5/9/15

CEDAR RAPIDS — The Quad Cities pitching staff has been other other-worldly the first month of the Midwest League season. It's why the River Bandits have a 23-6 record.

The Cedar Rapids Kernels pitching staff, meanwhile, has been just other-worldly. The Kernels have a 2.29 team earned run average, which somehow pales in comparison for QC's 2.04.

Everyone expected the starting rotation to be strong, and it has been. Mat Batts, Michael Cederoth, Stephen Gonsalves, Jared Wilson, John Curtiss, Felix Jorge, Zack Tillery (one start) and big leaguer Ricky Nolasco (one rehab start) have combined for a 2.69 ERA in 140 1/3 innings.

What has been a surprise is the performance of the guys coming out of the bullpen.

“Going in, we thought our relievers were our biggest question mark,” Manager Jake Mauer. “But I tell you what, those guys out there have been great.”

How great? Miles Nordgren came in from extended spring training in Fort Myers, Fla., for a couple of weeks due to injuries, didn't give up a run in 3 1/3 innings but got sent back to extended.

Cam Booser (0.64 ERA) has been a revelation with his mid-90s fastball from the left side. He has struck out 25 in 14 innings and has three saves.

But it's not just him. Sidearmer Trevor Hildenberger (0.60) has 20 strikeouts in 15 innings and given up just seven hits. Michael Theofanopoulos (1.26) has been as hard to hit as his last name is to spell.

C.K. Irby (2.46) has allowed just six hits and struck out 16 in 11 innings. Randy LeBlanc (3.60) has more strikeouts than innings pitched, as does Sam Clay (3.86).

Combined, the Kernels' bullpen has fashioned a 1.74 earned run average in just shy of 100 innings. The Kernels have Mother's Day off and then begin a seven-game homestand Monday, with Peoria and Quad Cities coming to town.

Sano clubs sixth Southern League homer

MiLB.com– 5/9/15

The power and production is starting to come back into Miguel Sano's game. Now the Twins are hoping the rest of his game follows suit.

Minnesota's second-ranked prospect homered, doubled, walked and scored twice Saturday night as Double-A Chattanooga defeated visiting Jackson, 7-4, for its third straight win.

The 21-year-old third baseman doubled to left field in the first inning and walked in the third. He clubbed a solo homer, his sixth of the season, to right in the fifth before flying out to end the sixth.

Sano is tied for third in the Southern League in homers with Biloxi's Nick Ramirez, one behind teammate Adam Brett Walker and Montgomery's Richie Shaffer. The native of the Dominican Republic, who's struck out 28 times, also is second on the circuit with 17 walks, trailing Tennessee's Kyle Schwarber by two.

MLB.com's No. 12 overall prospect, Sano is hitting .198 with 13 RBIs in 26 games. It's the highest his average has been since April 18, when he was batting .200, and he's only finished two games with an average north of the Mendoza line.

The 6-foot-4 infielder batted .280 with 35 homers and 103 RBIs in 123 games across two levels in 2013 but sat out all of last season after undergoing Tommy John surgery to reconstruct the ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow. He struck out eight times and had one extra-base hit in his first six games this year.

Things have been trending in the right direction since the calendar turned to May and the Lookouts returned home. Signed by the Twins as a non-drafted free agent in 2009, Sano has hits in six of nine games on the current homestand and has reached base in every contest. Two of his three multi-hit efforts have come in the past three days against Jackson, including a 3-for-4 performance on Thursday.

Twins top prospect Byron Buxton went 0-for-3, but he extended his RBI streak to eight games with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly that scored No. 15 prospect Max Kepler.

Lookouts starter Greg Peavey (2-1) allowed one run on five hits and a walk while striking out one over five innings for the win. D.J. Johnson pitched around two hits in the ninth for his first Double-A save.

Jackson starter Jake Zokan (1-1) yielded four runs on four hits over 4 2/3 frames. He issued three walks and struck out six but served up homers to Sano and Travis Harrison.
