

Twins' rookie hot item on Fourth of July

Staff Photo by Pete Hohn

Part of the record crowd, 45,890 strong, watched a first-inning Eddie Bane pitch at Metropolitan Stadium Wednesday night. The Fourth of July crowd was still backed up on entrance roads to parking lots waiting to watch

Bane, the recipient of the largest bonus ever paid by the Minnesota Twins, made his major league debut against Kansas City. Bane pitched seven innings and gave up three hits. The Twins lost 5-4. (Details—page 1C.)

Front Page of the Star Tribune July 5, 1973

Clipped By:

jjswol

Tue, Jul 4, 2017