

MILWAUKEE HAS RUSH ON TICKETS

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — (UPI) — A sudden rush of ticket sales has pushed the advance sale for Monday's exhibition game between Chicago and Minnesota to 32,000.

The White Sox and Twins, top teams in the American League race, will meet at County Stadium in a game sponsored by the Milwaukee Brewers, the organization trying to get another team for Milwaukee.

Allan (Bud) Selig, Brewers' president, said 6,000 tickets had been sold since last Friday, the day after the Sporting News reported Charles O. Finley was thinking of moving his Athletics to Milwaukee.

Twins & White Sox to play an exhibition game in Milwaukee on 7-24-1967

Clipped By:

jjswol

Wed, Jul 19, 2017