Wilson

the bench. To put him out, the defense must tag him or first base before the runner.

But even that explanation didn't end the madness.

Twins' manager Bill Rigney charged onto the field.

"I wanted to find out what Reisinger is going on the field," said Rigney. "He was out on the mound. I wanted to know why Wilson wasn't out just because Reisinger is interfering. What if my player (Alyea) shies away from the ball because he thinks he's going to run into Reisinger?

"If he can be out there, then the next time we've got the bases loaded, I'm going to put my coach out on the mound, too. Who's the umpire going to call out, my coach?"

Rice conceded that Reisinger was on the field, but not near the mound. "The rule says a coach cannot physically assist a player," said Rice. "Reisinger was not physically assisting Wilson.

"Tell Rigney if he wants to put his coach on the mound the next time, we'll handle him," Rice said with a grin.

And what happened to Wilson after all this?

Not only did he not go into the record book, he pulled a hamstring muscle in his left leg running the bases and had to leave the game.

10-Year-Olds Exchange Punches

Buckeyes Win Fourth Straight

From The Tribune's Wire Services

Ohio State ran its Big Ten baseball record to 4-0 Saturday with a doubleheader sweep while Wisconsin also won two games and Iowa and Michigan split a twin bill.

Ohio State outfielder Kevin Rustuck threw out the potential winning run at the plate in the seventh inning, then drove in a run in the eighth as the Buckeyes beat Purdue 6-3 in the first game. Ed Reeves scattered eight Purdue hits in Ohio State's 4-1 second game victory.

Host Wisconsin swept Northwestern 8-7 and 6-1. The Badgers had to pull down a four-run Northwestern rally in the seventh inning to win the first game, then got six-hit pitching from Lee Galli and home runs by Mike Johnson and Greg O'Brien to take the second game.

Michigan's Tom Lundsted and Mike Bowen homered to lead the visiting Wolverines to a 6-2 first game win over Iowa. Iowa's Mark Teschopp threw a four-hitter in the second game as the Hawkeyes won 4-1.

At Champaign, Ill., Illinois beat Indiana 1-0 in 10 innings and 5-1. The Illini won the opener on Ken Onesko's run-producing single. He also singled home what turned out to be the winning run in the fifth inning of the second game.

Dobson Hurls A's by Yanks

Associated Press

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Chuck Dobson pitched a three-hitter for his first victory of the season as the Oakland A's blanked New York 3-0 Saturday.

Dobson went into the game with an 0-3 record and a 9.20 earned run average, but scattered three singles in going the distance for the first time.

The A's nicked loser Stan Bahnsen for a second-inning run on Don Mincher's ground rule double and a single by catcher Dave Duncan, then pushed over two unearned runs in the fourth after an error by Yankee catcher Thurman Munson.

Oakland 3, New York 0

Cleveland 6, Chicago 5

CLEVELAND, Ohio—Solo home runs by Tony Horton and Ray Fosse paced an 11-hit attack as Cleveland squeezed past Chicago 6-5.

Cleveland scored twice in the first, third and fifth innings after Chicago took a 1-0 lead in the first on Carlos May's second homer of the season.

Red Sox Split Pair With Brewers

BOSTON, Mass — Boston rebounded behind Gary Peters' four-hit pitching for a 3-0 victory over Milwaukee after the Brewers snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 10-4 decision in the opener of a doubleheader.

Peters struck out four in his second victory in three decisions.

George Scott and Mike Andrews made Peters' job easier with homers.

Tommy Harper collected four singles and accounted for five runs as the Brewers capitalized on a weak Boston defense in the first game for their fourth victory in 15.

Milwaukee 10, Boston 4

California 5, Washington 3

WASHINGTON, D.C.— Jim Fregosi's pair of doubles and two run-scoring singles by Jim Spencer helped California to four runs off teammate George Brunet and a 5-3 victory over Washington.

Baltimore 9, Kansas City 3

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Paul Blair and Brooks Robinson hit home runs and drove in five runs between them, powering Baltimore to a 9-3 victory over Kansas City.

Blair cracked a three-run homer in the first inning, highlighting a five-run outburst. Robinson followed with another homer off loser Bill Butler and the Orioles tacked on a fifth run on two walks and pitcher Jim Palmer's single.

Banks Blasts Homer; Cubs Win 9th in Row

Associated Press

CHICAGO, Ill. — Ernie Banks' three-run homer in the third inning—his first of the season and 498th of his career—launched Chicago over Houston 11-5 Saturday. It was the Cubs' ninth straight victory.

Banks lofted Jim Bouton's first pitch into the left field stands with Glenn Beckert and Billy Williams on base after singles. Don Kessinger led off the inning with a single and scored as Williams' hit safely in his ninth straight game.

Beckert's first homer, in the fifth, kayoed Bouton and the Cubs padded their margin with three runs in the sixth. Two of the runs were walked across by Don Wilson.

Houston 5, Chicago 11

Pittsburgh 8, Atlanta 7

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Willie Stargell's long home run over the right field stands in the seventh, the second such feat this week, drove in the tying and winning runs as Pittsburgh won 8-7 over Atlanta.

The Pirates battled from a 7-4 deficit, scoring four runs off relievers Bob Priddy and Hoyt Wilhelm.

Fred Patek spurred the inning with a pinch triple and scored on Matty Alou's sacrifice-fly. Richie Hebner doubled to left and Roberto Clemente singled to center scoring Hebner before Stargell's blast.

Atlanta 4 Pittsburgh 8

Cincinnati 3, St. Louis 2

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Bobby Tolan cracked a decisive two-run homer and Jim Merritt scattered five hits before being lifted in the ninth inning as Cincinnati downed St. Louis 3-2.

Merritt boosted his record to 4-1 for the West Division leaders in the National League.

The Reds scored a run in the first inning off Steve Carlton on Pete Rose's single and Tommy Helms' double. Helms walked in the seventh before Tolan connected against his former teammates for his fifth homer of the season.

Montreal 7, San Francisco 3

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.— Bobby Wine's three-run double capped a six-run ninth inning that carried Montreal to a 7-3 victory over San Francisco.

The triumph was the second in 12 games for the Expos this season and negated five shutout innings by San Francisco's Juan Marichal in his first 1970 appearance.

Trailing 3-1 going to the ninth, the Expos scored off Ron Bryant, the Giants' third pitcher, on Ron Brand's pinch double and a single by Gary Sutherland.

Bryant retired the next two but Sutherland raced home from first when Rose

The new Spalding Smasher with 20/21 stringing.

The Spalding Smasher has a specially extruded aluminum frame to bring you more power. And now, for even better feel and control, it has a completely new stringing pattern:
Where most other rackets have only 18 main strings, the Smasher has 20/21 going for it. They're strung in such a way that string breakage is virtually abolished.
The 1970 Smasher by Spalding. With so much on the ball, no wonder it's high strung.
Spalding gives you the professional edge.
