Dream Comes True for Kid Brother of Tony Conigliaro

BOSTON, Mass.—One dream came true, but another was shattered—all within 24 hours—for Billy Conigliaro, 17-year-old brother of Red Sox outfielder Tony Conigliaro.

Young Conigliaro's hopes of winning the state Class B baseball crown ended on June 8 when his team—Swampscott High School—was beaten, 4-0, by East Boston High School. Conigliaro's wildness on the mound made him the losing pitcher.

The next day, however, a dream came true when Billy was drafted by the Red Sox. He is expected to sign a contract shortly.
