Pittsburgh routs Cincinnati 9-2

Steve Carlton pitched a complete game to lead the Pirates to a 9-2 victory over the Reds in Cincinnati.

except for a couple of wild pitches here and a balk or so there, much of the rest of the game was merely a slugfest. Boog Powell hit a Jim Hughes pinch over the center-field fence. Tony Oliva drove one to right off Cleveland starter Roric Harrison.

The Twins celebrated the return to the regular line-up of Curry and Eric Soderholm—each of them got three hits—by adding 18 hits off Harrison. Fred Beaman and Tom Busby. The Indians only managed 12 hits, while reaching their season-high of 10 runs.

Vic Albury, who moved down the Indians after coming in during Cleveland's two-run rally in the seventh, had to wait until Quilici got into the box before making his fourth victory of the season. In the 10th, Albury walked Duane Kuiper.

The only Indian to reach base off the last 10 Albury faced, so Albury picked Kuiper off first by such a margin he could only run for second.

First baseman Kelly threw to shortstop Thompson, and Thompson hit Kuiper back toward first for the tag. Kuiper, however, jumped for the tag of the baselines to avoid the tag, then tried again for second. Thompson threw out already, but leaving the baselines.

Quilici ran out on the field and intervened in Thompson's behalf finally getting thrown out for his opinions. On maybe Quilici couldn't take any more humor for one night. As it turned out, the last laugh was on the Indians.
