Twins' Chance Hurls 2-1 No-Hitter

Twins Win 2 From Tribe; Lead League

By TOM BRIERE
MINNEAPOLIS Tribune Staff Writer
CLEVELAND, Ohio—(AP)—Jimmie Hall, Don Mincher and Dean Chance became the first Twins pitcher to hit the lead-off American League no-hitter in the first game of a doubleheader Friday night. He had a 2-0 no-hitter over Boston at the Met. Aug. 6 when he tossed 12 Red Sox in order.

BERRY'S SINGLE WINS NIGHTCAP White Sox Split With Boston

CHICAGO, Ill.—(AP)—Korn earned a night of Berry's ninth-inning single (twilight doubleheader) game and the Chicago White Sox edged Boston 2-1 Friday.

Chicago's ninth in the second game hitged out five straight batters to take a 3-0 lead. Again with two out in the second, three straight walks intentionally, singles sent Peters to the base and to right center, with his seventh loss in 21 decisions.

Changes Slow Vikings' Offense

THERE ARE REASONS WHY the Minnesota Vikings' defense will continue to be more effective than their attack for weeks to come, possibly throughout the season.

It is different on the attacking side. There Grant is installing his own offense, which differs somewhat from that used by Norm Van Brocklin.

YOU CAN NEVER TELL WHY BASEBALL IS UNPREDICTABLE.

In 1966 no one would have said the Twins could
