17 MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE ••• Sat., Aug. 26, 1967

SID HARTMAN

HIS DAD AND MOTHER, his high school baseball coach at Wooster, Ohio, and most of his relatives were in the Municipal Stadium stands Friday night as Dean Chance pitched the first nine-inning no-hitter of his major league career to beat Cleveland 2-1.

Chance, who pitched 4⅓-innings of perfect ball Aug. 6 to beat the Red Sox 2-0 in a game shortened by rain at Metropolitan Stadium, pitched no-hit ball last night despite giving up an unearned run to the Indians in the first inning. The effort helped the Twins regain first place in the American League.

"I must have gotten everybody's complimentary tickets on the team for my relatives and friends," said Chance, whose home is only 90 miles from the ball park.

"I took Jim Roland and Jim Merritt home with me to show them our farm and we slept there overnight. The home cooking must have helped."

Dan Baker, Chance's high school coach, had seen the 26-year-old Twins right-hander hurl 18 no-hit, no-run games in high school, so the feat was nothing new to him.

"This guy (Baker) has been great for me and I was glad he was in the stands to see the game," said Chance. "I pitched with only two days rest and seemed to feel a lot better than I have for some time.

"Was I worried about being taken out in the first inning when I walked two and filled the bases when Cesar Tovar made an error? No, I wasn't because after using all the pitchers in the first game, manager Cal Ermer told me I had to go nine. We didn't have anyone to bring in."

Chance, who almost signed with the Indians as a youngster and was close to being traded to Cleveland last winter, recalled pitching two two-hit games in the Cleveland park before, both for the California Angels.

"If I was going to pitch a no-hitter, I'm sure glad I pitched it here, right in my back yard."

Osborn Speed: Dave Osborn, the Viking halfback from the University of North Dakota, continues to be the fastest man in the Mankato training camp for 40 yards, despite the presence of speedsters Gene Washington and Clinton Jones of Michigan State and Bob Grim of Oregon State.

The other day Osborn won some of Jones' money by beating him in a 40-yard race. Washington, who has run the 100-yard dash in 9.7 seconds and won the Big Ten hurdles crown, refuses to oppose Osborn in a 40-yard race.

"The only way we get Osborn off the field is to order him off," said coach Bud Grant. "He never stops running and working."

Linehan Story: Don Linehan, former University of Minnesota basketball player and assistant coach, writes from Iran, where he is coaching the Iran National basketball team:

"Coaching the young people in Iran is a wonderful experience for me. I have come to regard them most highly and Iran as my home.

"In the recent basketball tournament with Iran, Iraq, Pakistan and Turkey we lost to Turkey in the finals by 10 points. Last year Turkey beat Iran by 49 points.

"My grant is over Nov. 18, but I'm hopeful of an extension. I hope to take my team to Moscow soon. Our goal is to win the 1970 Asian games."

The headline in the July 31 Tehran Journal read: "New Hope for Iran's Basketball Team Thanks to U.S. Coach."

The story added: "In five months that he coached the team he has brought discipline, organization and a sense of teamwork to the players.

"The recent games with Pakistan and Turkey clearly showed what Linehan has done for the team and brought hope to many Iranians that basketball, which has always been rated as a secondary sport, may soon compete with soccer — thanks to coach Linehan."

Jottings: Ron Green, former North Dakota end who had a trial with the Vikings last year, now is with the Cleveland Browns. He suffered a back injury in the Philadelphia Eagle game and isn't expected to play until the Browns face the Vikings Sept. 16 in an exhibition at Metropolitan Stadium . . .

George Thomas, former University of Minnesota basketball player, is being used by the Red Sox as their third string catcher. He caught five innings recently and impressed manager Dick Williams . . .

Ex-Vikings Larry Vargo and Bill Swain will start at linebacking positions for the Giants Sunday at New Haven. Dick Kotite of Wagner College, who was with the Vikings last year, now is with the Giants . . .

The report from the Pittsburgh Steeler camp is that ex-Gopher Chet Anderson has made a fine impression but he must beat out two experienced tight ends to make the squad . . .

Eric Bundgard, Northfield High School basketball player who was reported headed for Princeton, has decided on Colorado instead. A teammate, Dave Fitholt, will enroll at Harvard this fall . . .

They Say:

Cal Ermer, Twin manager: "When I had Ted Uhlaender at Denver in 1965, I was convinced he'd be a good major-league hitter. I was surprised defensively when Ted didn't hit early this season. Now he again looks like the hitter he was at Denver." (Uhlaender is hitting .342 in his last 73 at-bats before going into Friday night's doubleheader.)

Harry Brown, president of the Minnesota-Ontario Junior Hockey League: "The Fort Frances Royals have entered our league and they have some of the finest young hockey players in Canada. All of the Fort Frances games will be played at the new Met Arena, plus many of the games between the American teams in our league."

Paulson, Blooston Lead 4-Ball

Shooting a blistering 29 on the back nine, Dick Blooston and John Paulson of Minnesota Valley combined for a 6-under par 64 to take the first round lead Friday in the State Four Ball golf tournament at Oak Ridge.

The leaders had seven best-ball 3's on their card, including the final four holes, for a one-stroke lead over Bob Lucas and Russ Doe of Wirth.

Paulson had birdies on the 12th, 15th, 17th and 18th holes, while Boston birdied 10 and 14.

Blooston, who celebrates his first wedding anniversary today, had paired with Les Peterson to win the Four Ball in 1964 at Minnesota Valley.

"Paulson carried us over the back nine," said Blooston, the 1963 Pine to Palm champion now in the brokerage business in Minneapolis. "He shot some of the greatest golf I've ever seen."

Sharing third place with 3-under par 67s were Whitey Windahl-Bud Schloe of Minneapolis Golf Club, Reed Mackenzie-Ted Vickerman of Hazeltine and Pete Passolt-Warren Rehholz of Hazeltine.

The record field of 80 teams was cut to 30 for today's final round. The cut-off score, determined by a 12-team playoff, was 71.

land), and four perfect games. Of course, it's a big thrill to get the first nine-inning no-hitter in the majors."

Chance, however, confessed he was worried more about losing to Sonny Siebert in a stirring mound duel than he was about his no-hitter.

"You know," Chance said, "the fact the game was so close, and the fact we're in this tough pennant race, actually took some of the pressure off the no-hitter. I was thinking only of winning."

Cleveland, which hit only four fly balls to the outfield mostly one ball hard off the bat of Lee Maye in the fifth inning—scored its only run off Chance in the first inning on two walks, an error and Dean's wild pitch.

In turn, the Twins got the winning run off Siebert in the sixth inning on a balk to break a 1-1 deadlock.

Chance walked five and struck out eight.

"I thought I had no-hit stuff," said Dean, who smiled like a big kid in receiving congratulations from hundreds in the clubhouse, including his father, Wilmer, and received a telephone call from vice president Hubert Humphrey.

"I THREW fast balls and curves. In the last inning, I threw nothing but sliders to ground out Davalillo. Hinton and Horton to the infield."

Chance admitted the toughest man for him last night was Maye, who walked twice.

"Then when those homers hitting left-handers came up as pinch-hitters — Fred Whitfield in the seventh and Leon Wagner in the ninth— I gave them pitches to hit, but nothing they could hit for a home run," Dean said.

Whitfield grounded out and Wagner struck out.

"Man, I didn't want no cheap hit to break his no-hitter," said Wagner. "I was going home-run or nothing. He deserved a no-hitter, he's come so close so many times."

Catcher Jerry Zimmerman, who also caught Chance's mini-perfect game at the Met, said: "Dean was just wild enough tonight to be effective. Those Cleveland hitters were banging loose at the plate.

"Dean has no-hit stuff almost every time he goes out, with his fast ball, breaking pitch and that well-hidden motion."

CHANCE walked the first two batters—Maye and Vic Davalillo—to face him in the first inning.

"Then pitching coach Early Wynn came out and told me my motion was too slow," said Chance. "I did better after that."

But Cleveland filled the bases with one out when Tony Horton reached first on third baseman Cesar Tovar's error. While striking out Max Alvis, Chance wild pitched home the Indians' only run.

The Twins tied 1-1 in the second inning. Tony Oliva singled to right. He was moved up on Harmon Killebrew's single to left and breezed by Cleveland's Tony Horton's stop sign at third base for the Twins' first run.

They won on an oddity in the sixth inning. Tovar and Oliva singled for a first-and-third situation with one out. With the count 3-2 on Killebrew, Siebert started his motion, then dropped his back foot off the mound.

UMPIRE Larry Napp, at home, called the balk on Siebert, with Tovar coming home with the 2-1 lead run. Chance made it stand up.

Siebert contended that he backed off the mound before he started his motion. Napp said Siebert lifted his arms before backing off for the balk.

About the side issue of the Chance-Siebert duel throwing match in the middle innings, Chance said: "I'm glad he hit me with a pitch in the fifth inning. That's the only way I can get on base."

Ironically, Chance beat the only American League no-hit pitcher of 1966 in Siebert.

"He's tough," said Chance. "I can remember my best year of 1964 when I won 20 games. He beat me 1-0 that year. Now I've got a chance to win 20 again with 17 in the bank and another nine or 10 starts left.

"But the main thing is to win the pennant."

CHANCE used 95 pitches to win last night, and the Twins mobbed him on the field at the final out.

Harmon Killebrew's hat won his second straight game for the Twins with a 6-5, 10-inning decision over Cleveland in the first game.

One of Killebrew's rare three-base hits drove home the singling Tony Oliva to break a 4-4 tie. Then Harmon scored from third base on Sandy Valdespino's sacrifice fly for the Twins' 6-4 lead.

RELIEF pitcher Ron Kline needed the extra run, too, for his sixth victory without a loss this season.

Cleveland's Joe Azcue slugged his ninth homer over the center-field screen with one out in the 10th for the 6-5 finale.

Killebrew triumphed over Denny McLain's fast ball for a game-winning homer in Detroit Thursday. Last night he overpowered one of left-handed John O'Donoghue's curve balls for his ninth game-breaking hit of the season.

After Oliva opened the Twins' 10th inning with a line single to center, O'Donoghue threw Killebrew six straight curve balls.

THE CLEVELAND pitcher got two quick strikes on breaking balls, before Harmon fouled off another pair of curves. Then O'Donoghue threw a low curve for a ball.

On the next pitch, Killebrew whistled O'Donoghue's curve down the left field line, scoring Oliva easily for the Twins' 5-4 edge. When the ball ricocheted by left fielder Leon Wagner, the slow-moving Killebrew gambled all the way to third but for his annual triple.

Killebrew has hit one three-base hit for each of the past four seasons.

The Twins fashioned a 4-1 lead over the Indians after four innings, keyed by Ted Uhlaender's two-run homer in the fourth inning off Indian starter Stan Williams. It was Ted's sixth home run of the year.

GRANT gave up a leadoff homer to Chuck Hinton in the first inning. Then the Indians used three singles in each of the fourth and fifth innings for a run to draw within 4-3.

Singles by Max Alvis and Larry Brown brought lefthanded Lee Maye in as a pinch-hitter with two out in the Cleveland sixth inning. So Twins manager Cal Ermer called for left-handed Jim Roland in relief of Grant.

Right-handed Don Demeter then batted for Maye and drove a double to left center, scoring Alvis for the 4-4 tie. Jim Perry replaced Roland to retire Hinton for the final out of the inning.

Center fielder Uhlaender jumped taller the six-foot fence to take Leon Wagner's 390-foot home-run bid in the second out of the seventh inning.

TWIN TOPICS: Jim Kaat (9-12) will oppose Cleveland's Steve Hargan (13-10) today in a single game that will begin at 1:15 p.m. (Minneapolis time) . . .

Twins pitcher Dave Boswell reported his bruised right elbow much improved. He's scheduled to face batters more at Metropolitan Stadium Tuesday . . . Outfielder Bob Allison did not start either game because of a pulled hamstring muscle. He appeared as a pinch-hitter in the first game, however . . .

Former Gopher first baseman Bill Davis, who sat out the season after leg surgery last winter, as been drilling daily with Cleveland's rookie league club in Sarasota, Fla. An ear infection slowed Davis and he has returned to his home in Minneapolis . . .

In the second game, Siebert decked Killebrew with a high, tight fast ball on an 0-2 count in the fourth inning, so Chance came back at Tony Horton in the fourth with the same thing on an 0-1 count. Siebert hit Chance in the fifth inning with a pitched ball, and Chance made some remarks to Sonny. Then Siebert walked over to first base. Horton, however pushed Siebert away.

Umpire Larry Napp warned Chance at the start of the Cleveland fifth . . .

HILLER WINS 3-0

Tiger Homers Top K.C.

Associated Press

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Dick McAuliffe, Bill Freehan and Eddie Mathews hit bases-empty home runs to lead Detroit to a 3-0 triumph over Kansas City Friday night behind John Hiller's six-hitter.

Hiller, who shut out Cleveland Sunday in his first major-league start, raised his record to 3-0.

Hiller ran his string of scoreless innings to 20⅓. The A's suffered their second straight shutout defeat.

McAuliffe hit his 21st homer in the first. Freehan collected his 17th in the second. Mathews, the veteran obtrom the National League, became the eighth player to hit a ball over the high wall in right field, driving it 425 feet from home plate in the seventh off Chuck Dobson.

Mathews, who has two homers since joining the Tigers from Houston, has 505 career homers, six less than Mel Ott, who ranks sixth on the all-time homer list, a notch ahead of Mathews.

Yanks 7-2, Nats 5-1

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The New York Yankees scored one run on a passed ball and another on Bill Robinson's single to beat the Washington Senators 2-1 after winning the first game of a doubleheader 7-5 behind Bob Tillman's hitting.

The Yankees scored a run without a hit in the first inning of the second game on a walk to Horace Clarke, a stolen base, a throwing error on the steal by Doug Camilli and a passed ball by Camilli as Robinson fanned.

Robinson's third-inning single followed a single by Roy White and a walk to Steve Whitaker.

Tillman batted in three runs with a home run and two run scoring singles as the Yankees won the opener behind Mel Stottlemyre.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROUNDUP

REPLACING McKEEVER

Powers Starts Against Giants

By MERRILL SWANSON
Minneapolis Tribune Staff Writer

MANKATO, Minn. — Marlin McKeever will miss the Vikings' pre - season game Sunday against New York at New Haven, Conn., because of the death of his twin brother, Mike, in California.

Mike McKeever suffered a brain injury in an automobile accident Dec. 3, 1965, and has been unconscious and in critical condition since that time.

He died Thursday night and Marlin was informed Friday. He left for California yesterday afternoon.

The closeness between the two brothers was evidenced the first day Marlin arrived in Viking camp at Mankato this summer. While talking about his days (as an All-American) at Southern Cal, Marlin never said "I"—it always was "Mike and I."

In Marlin's absence, veteran John Powers will start at tight end against New York.

It is a well-deserved chance for the versatile, 27-year-old Powers, who was acquired by the Vikings in midseason last year to fill in at linebacker during a wave of injuries at that position.

The 6-foot-2, 255-pound veteran of seven years in the National Football League opened the Vikings' training camp this season as a tight end candidate.

But Powers has been unnoticed for the most part while caught between the efficient McKeever and the talented rookie, John Beasley of California.

This chance for some extended play comes at an opportune time for Powers, with one squad cut down scheduled Monday and two more set before the Sept. 17 league opener.

Perhaps if Powers' talents as a tight end had been realized last year, he could have filled a void that troubled the Vikings for much of the season.

He is not a spectacular player, but has exhibited an ability to get the job done. An example occurred two weeks ago, in the Vikings' 34-0 victory over Philadelphia in Tulsa, Okla. Powers made a fine over-the-shoulder catch of a perfectly thrown Bob Berry pass for the Vikings' final touchdown.

It has been the Vikings' only touchdown by passing this season.

The only other starting lineup changes from last week will have Berry at quarterback, Jim Vellone at right tackle and Ron Acks at left linebacker.

The starting lineups:

OFFENSE

Barbarossa Falls in Western Golf

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Bob Barbarossa of St. Cloud, Minn., and Houston Univerity, was eliminated Friday in the first round of the 60th Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

Barbarossa was knocked out of the tournament by Chip Stewart of Dallas, Tex., who defeated him 1-up. The 20-year-old Stewart then beat Rodney Horn of Prairie Village, Kan., 2 and 1 in the quarter-finals. That victory put Stewart into today's semifinals against Bob Smith of Sacramento, Calif. Smith defeated Tommy Watson of Kansas City 1-up in the quarter-finals.

Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael, Calif., and Marty Fleckman of Houston, Tex., are paired in the other semifinal.

Cerrudo charged from behind with three straight birdies on the 15th, 16th and 17th greens yesterday to defeat Minneapolis native George Boutell, now of Phoenix, Ariz., 3 and 1 in the quarter-finals.

Fleckman defeated Terry Dear of Albuquerque, N.M., 2 and 1 in his quarter-final match.

WAYNE CONNELLY SIGNED BY STARS

Wayne Connelly, a wing who played the 1966-67 season with the Boston Bruins, signed Friday with the Minnesota North Stars of the National Hockey League.

Connelly, 27, was the fifth choice of the North Stars in the NHL expansion draft last June. He scored 13 goals and 17 assists for the Bruins last season, getting 10 goals before injuries hobbled him through the second half of the year.
