

THE MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE
Mon., Oct. 2, 1967

Mass Burial Graves were dug at the Elmwood (Mexico) Municipal Cemetery Sunday for the 11 children who were victims of head injuries last week. Officials blamed a sugar contaminated by an insecticide for the deaths. The reason for the mass burial was that many of the families could not afford burial in private cemeteries.

China

Continued From Page One

revolutionary forces which in response to the great call of Chairman Mao we must not only thoroughly destroy the bourgeois base, but must carry our more extensive and powerful revolutionary main criticism and political, ideologically and theoretically and will never be able to rise again," he said.

Among those absent were Lin Shao-chi, apparent ally of the Peking president of China, and head of the country's Khrushchev and the No. 1 party person who had followed the revisionist and capitalist road.

Ford's Communist Charges at Rally
DETROIT, Mich. — (AP) — Some 8,000 striking Ford Motor Co. workers Sunday heard United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther attack the auto industry in general and accuse Ford in particular of forcing the union to strike.

Federal Troops Reported Outside Biafran Capital
LAGOS, Nigeria — (Reuters) — Federal forces Sunday fought their way through the outskirts of Ibadan, capital of southwestern Nigeria, according to military sources here.

Fans

Continued From Page One

were naturally disappointed when they were told that the game was off. The game was scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the University of Minnesota. The game was postponed because of rain.

Philby

Continued From Page One

American colleagues and he was dropped from the Washington assignment. The Observer said that despite a promise to the contrary, Philby was back on the Secret Service books while sitting as its Beirut correspondent.

Dr. Proffitt

Continued From Page One

Association before the Twin came to Minnesota. Dr. Proffitt was born in Danville, Ill., and attended high school in Buffalo, N.Y. He was an outstanding high school athlete and chose to attend at Minnesota because his mother had been granted a full scholarship.

Correction

The date for the appearance of a book called "The Book of the Front Cover" in St. Paul was reported incorrectly in the Minneapolis Tribune Sunday. The correct date is Friday.

10 Charged With Drunken Driving

Minneapolis police arrested 10 drivers over the weekend and charged them with drunk driving.

City Man Shot, Seriously Hurt, After Scuffle

A 39-year-old Minneapolis man was shot and seriously injured Sunday afternoon in a scuffle over a parking space in the city.

5 WAYS YOU CAN BE HAPPIER

A famous psychologist has discovered the five ways to happiness. Find out how to develop 5 special qualities essential to happiness. One of 42 articles and features in the October issue of Reader's Digest.

READER'S DIGEST

JUSTER'S

BEAT THE BLIZZARD, WARM UP TO WINTER IN PURE VIRGIN WOOL

"Wawick" suburban coat by Zero King combines the hearty richness and lightweight warmth of pure virgin wool. For town and country wear, 36-inch length, with the added warmth of exclusively blended alpaca pile lining, pile collar and lapels, quilted sleeves, knit wristlets. With the wool mark label. Antique gold, forest green, brown heather. Regular and shorts $55 Longs, $61

JUSTER'S
DOWNTOWN, On 4th Street near Nicollet Mall
SOUTHDALE • BROOKDALE