Red Sox Beat Twins, Take Pennant
Yaz, Lonborg Pace Win

By TOM BIERER
All the Twins have left in the wake of being led by Boston with a one-game hold in the first place and losing the last two games. They did not play well enough to win Saturday's 6-4 loss, of yesterday.
Yesterday, right-handed pitcher Lonborg pitched a masterful seven-inning performance to lead the Red Sox to their first pennant since 1918.
