

Tickets for Opening Day, all March-May home games on sale December 18

Fans can also take advantage of limited-time 19% ticket discount for all March-May games excluding the Opener

Dec. 11th, 2018

The Minnesota Twins announced today that the 2019 Home Opener will go on sale December 18 at 10:00 a.m. CT. The first 30,000 fans in attendance for the Home Opener on March 28 vs. the Cleveland Indians (3:10 p.m. CT) will receive a Twins branded puffer vest (Adult M or XL) courtesy of Your Local Northland Ford Dealers.

Additionally, for a limited time, all fans purchasing tickets for 2019 home games in March, April and May (excluding the Home Opener) will receive 19% off the normal ticket price. Season Ticket Holders and Group Organizers will have access to a special pre-sale which will begin December 17 at 10:00 a.m. CT. The balance of regular season tickets will go on-sale January 22, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. CT.

"This limited offer is a great opportunity for those looking to find that special gift for the holidays at a special price for those Twins fans in their life," said Mike Clough, Senior Vice President, Ticket Sales & Service.

Tickets for this special offer can be purchased at twinsbaseball.com or by calling 1-800-33-TWINS (800-338-9467) starting December 18, the first time in Target Field history that single-game tickets have gone on sale prior to the New Year. In addition, season plans and group ticket packages are on sale now.

Read more: Minnesota Twins