Delivering fans another flexible, affordable and easily-accessible way to attend games at Target Field, the Minnesota Twins today introduced their expanded 2019 Twins Pass ticket plans, available for purchase now at twinsbaseball.com/twinspace or by calling 1-800-33-TWINS. Available at three different monthly price points – two of which provide access to a seat, based on availability, for each game – the 2019 Twins Pass gives fans the ability to attend all Twins regular season home games this season, with the exceptions of Opening Day (March 28) and Joe Mauer Day (June 15).

The three monthly price points (March/April through September) for a 2019 Twins Pass, available for the regular season at Target Field, are outlined below (please note that Opening Day on March 28 and Joe Mauer Day on June 15 are excluded at all three levels):

- $49/month per person (6 months total) – provides access to one “ballpark access” ticket, but no seating, to every regular season Twins game played at Target Field in 2019.
- $99/month per person (6 months total) – provides access to one upper level seat (sections 301-334), based on availability, for every regular season Twins game played at Target Field in 2019.
- $149/month per person (6 months total) – provides access to one lower level seat (sections 101-131), based on availability, for every regular season Twins game played at Target Field in 2019.

Twins Pass game tickets will be delivered to fans directly via their mobile devices using the MLB Ballpark app, with a limit of six (6) per customer. Fans purchasing a Twins Pass with seat access can also sit with friends and family who have the same level Pass, by utilizing the “Sit with Friends” function and linking tickets.

For more information, and to purchase a 2019 Twins Pass, please visit twinsbaseball.com/twinspace or call 1-800-33-TWINS.
