

Twins announce $5 flash sale tickets sold out

Fans Purchase More Than 30,000 Tickets in Less Than 48 Hours

May 9, 2019

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, MN – The Minnesota Twins, owners of the best record in Major League Baseball at 23-12 (.657), announced today that the full allotment of $5 tickets for 12 May home games – 32,000 tickets in total – have sold out in less than 48 hours of the club's flash sale. After 20,000 U.S. Bank Home Run Porch View and Grandstand seats were grabbed between 6 p.m. Tuesday and 2 p.m. Wednesday, an additional 12,000 Ballpark Access tickets were purchased from 6:30 p.m. Wednesday to 4 p.m. today.

"We applaud Twins fans for their wonderful response in celebrating this exciting start by our first-place club," said Twins President & CEO Dave St. Peter. "We now look forward to welcoming the team back home, and turning Target Field into the place to be this May and throughout the summer."

The Twins, who have gone 11-5 at Target Field thus far in 2019, open a seven-game homestand tomorrow night (Friday, May 10) against Detroit. Minnesota has 12 remaining May home games scheduled, hosting the Tigers and Chicago White Sox (May 24-26) for two series this month against AL Central rivals, while also welcoming Mike Trout, Shohei Ohtani and the Los Angeles Angels (May 13-15). The Twins conclude their May home slate with the annual Border Battle interleague series against the Milwaukee Brewers (May 27-28).
