scout who handles this area for the local team.

Allen was an eight letterman in high school at East Liverpool, where he played regular four years at second base in baseball, three years in football and one year in basketball.

He is majoring in physical education at Purdue and expects to return to school after the baseball season.

"This ends my football career," said Allen, who wasn't drafted by anybody in the NFL since they were all certain he wouldn't play football.
