TWINS' MINOR LEAGUE TRAINING CAMP:

TWINSVILLE
MELBOURNE, FLORIDA

Calvin R. Griffith, Twins' President

1965 looms as a year of great challenge in the lives of Calvin Griffith and his Minnesota Twins. After three resoundingly successful seasons, the Twins in 1964 found the going rough, both on the field and at the gate.

The team looked great in spring training at Orlando, Florida, and continued to perform well through the early weeks of the season. An injury to second baseman Bernie Allen in mid-June started the club on a downslide, however, and they were never able to right themselves, eventually winding up in a tie for sixth place in the American League . . this after first division finishes the preceding two seasons.

While the team continued to draw well at the gate, winding up with a total of 1,207,514, which was good for third place among league clubs, the attendance was, nonetheless, down considerably from the better-than-1,400,000 total with which Minnesota led the circuit in 1963.

So, for the first time since the move to Minnesota in October, 1960, Mr. Griffith finds his Twins in the position of having to fight their way back. Therein lies the challenge.

Challenge is nothing new for the Twins' chief executive, however. During his tenure as president of the club, he has successfully met a series of challenges. Chief among these were his succession to the presidency, close to ten years ago, and his much-deliberated decision to move his club to the Upper Midwest, five years later.

Perhaps more than any other high executive in baseball, Calvin Griffith was groomed to run a ball club. This he has been able to do, serving as his own general manager without that title but within his portfolio as Twins' president.

Born Calvin Robertson in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, he was adopted and brought to Washington by his uncle, Hall of Famer Clark C. Griffith, one of the great old-time pitchers, co-founder of the American League, and patron saint of baseball in the District of Columbia.

He began as mascot of the pennant-winning Washington teams of 1924 and 1925, and was educated at Staunton Military Academy, in Virginia, and George Washington University in the Capital City.

In 1935, Uncle Clark assigned Calvin to a three-year hitch as treasurer and president of the Senators' Chattanooga farm team. From 1938 through 1941, he held the same two posts at Charlotte.

At Chattanooga and Charlotte, Calvin even had some whirls at managing and proved a two-fisted leader. His Charlotte clubs won a pennant, barely missed two others and broke attendance records. He helped prepare for the majors such players as Early Wynn, Al Evans, Jake Early, Jim Bloodworth, Sherry Robertson, Joe Haynes and Bobby Estalella.

He married Natalie Niven of Charlotte and they have a son, Clark II, and two daughters, Corinne and Clare.

In 1942, Calvin was recalled to Washington to serve as his Uncle Clark's chief lieutenant. He began by operating the club's concessions department at Griffith Stadium. He had whirls as traveling secretary and in public relations. Then, he was permitted to negotiate the Senators' radio and television contracts. Later he was given authority to negotiate player trades.

On October 27, 1955, Clark Griffith passed away, and Calvin was elected president of the Senators five days later.

With his decision to transfer the Senators to Minnesota, on Oct. 26, 1960, Mr. Griffith brought to baseball's New Frontier an era brimming with the promise of victory and excitement in concert with the boom of the Upper Midwest.

Manager

MELE, Sabath Anthony "Sam"

Born January 21, 1922, in Astoria, Long Island, New York. Height: 6 ft., 1 in. Weight: 200 lbs. Batted and threw righthanded. Married. Lives in Quincy, Massachusetts.

Since taking the helm of the Twins on June 23, 1961, Sam Mele has compiled one of the most impressive managerial records in the major leagues.

In three and a half seasons, the Mele-led Twins have won 306 games while dropping just 273, for a percentage of .528. Sam has guided the Twins to one second-place finish and one third-place windup in that time.

Although his Twins slipped a bit in 1964, Mele is confident that improvement in the club's defense will cause a resurgence of Minnesota fortunes in 1965.

A fine player in the majors for ten years, Sam played the outfield and first base equally well, had a strong arm and hit with occasional power.

He left his mark on the major league scene. In 1947, he was named the American League's top rookie. In 1951, he led the league in doubles, and in 1951 and 1953, he was the top outfielder in the league defensively. In 1953, he set a league record for most consecutive errorless games by an outfielder in a season, 131, handling 212 chances.

In the fourth inning of a game on June 10, 1952, Sam tied two major league records with his bat. He tripled and homered in the same inning, equalling the record for most long hits in an inning (2), and he batted in six runs, tying the mark.

Sam signed his first contract with the Boston Red

Sam signed his first contract with the Boston Red Sox when he was in his third year at New York University. He had lettered in basketball, as well as base-

Sam comes from quite an athletic family. In fact, his uncle is Tony Cuccinello, long-time major league infielder, who is now a coach with the Chicago White Sox. In January, 1949, Sam wed the former Constance Mary Clemens and the couple now has four children.

Players

"Bernie" ALLEN, Bernard Keith Second Baseman Born April 16, 1939, in East Liverpool, Ohio. Height: 6 ft. Weight: 180 lbs. Bats left, throws right. Married. Lives in Bloomington, Minnesota.

After Bernie Allen was injured in a second base collision with Washington's Don Zimmer last June 13, the Twins began a steady decline toward an eventual second-division finish. In all, over the course of the season, eight other players were tested and found wanting at the keystone. Bernie, himself, even hustled back into the lineup on August 4. But, on September 1, he re-injured the cartilage and ligaments of his left knee. This time, he was through for the season and, in fact, underwent surgery to correct the condition on October 26, in Oklahoma City. Over the winter months, Bernie toured the Upper Midwest as a member of the Twins' public relations entourage. A graduate of Purdue University, Allen was an outstanding quarterback for the Boilermaker football squad, as well as having been a standout on the diamond As a high school set shot artist in Foot on the diamond. As a high school set-shot artist in East Liverpool, Ohio, Bernie was named to the All-America Scholastic basketball squad in 1957.

ALLISON, William Robert "Bob" Outfielder Born July 11, 1934, in Raytown, Missouri. Height: 6 ft., 4 in. Weight: 220 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Edina, Minnesota.

The 1964 season was the finest yet in the six-year major league career of Bob Allison. Despite fears that a shift to first base might have an adverse effect on the big fellow's hitting, Bob proceeded to exceed his best previous season's average by 16 points and was, in fact, leading the league in hitting as late as the All-Star break in July with a mark of .336. He was selected by his compatriots in the circuit to start at first base for alls compations in the circuit to start at first base for the American League in the glitter contest, his third All-Star appearance. Early 1965 plans call for Bob to be stationed in leftfield, where his speed can be put to better use. Only Harmon Killebrew and Roy Sievers have hit more homeruns for Griffith clubs than Bob's 170. The junior circuit's Rookie of the Year in 1959, Allison now serves as the Twins' and the American League's Player Representative. He spends the winters in the Twin Cities as a salesman for Coca-Cola.

A rigorous wintertime conditioning program designed to keep his weight below the 230 lb.-figure is the springboard Earl Battey hopes to capitalize upon in his efforts to rebound from what was, for him, a disappointing 1964 season. Battey, a key man in Twins' fortunes, is confident he'll return to the form which made him a three-time recipient of the Gold Glove Award for fielding excellence. Earl, whose parents are both one-time professional softball players, was such an outstanding basketball player in his high school days that he was offered a contract to play with the famed Harlem Globetrotters. He is employed during the winter months as a public relations representative of General Mills, Inc., in the Twin Cities.

BOSWELL, David Wilson

Born January 20, 1945, in Baltimore, Maryland. Height: 6 ft., 3 in. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Single. Lives in Baltimore.

A world of promise was displayed by young Dave Boswell in his rookie season of professional baseball last year. After an impressive spring training with the Twins . . . he was one of the last players to be cut from the roster before Opening Day. . . Dave went on to lead the tough Northern League in strikeouts. This performance earned him advancement to the Charlotte club of the Southern League in August, where he was even more impressive, prompting his purchase by the Twins in September. Dave had four starts for the parent club, beating Kansas City and Los Angeles. He had the hard-hitting A's shut out until the ninth inning, September 23, in Kansas City, before Dick Green homered for the only KayCee run in Boswell's 2-1 win. Dave continued his fine pitching into Florida Instructional League play in St. Petersburg last fall before a broken finger sidelined him in November.

BETHEA, William Lamar "Spot" Infielder Born January 1, 1942, in Houston, Texas. Height: 5 ft., 11 in. Weight: 170 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Houston.

A late-season stint with the Twins in 1964 stamped a 'can't miss' label on the former Texas Longhorn, Bill Bethea. After a sparkling season at shortstop for the Charlotte Hornets, Bill subbed for Zoilo Versalles in his first big league game, September 13, in New York, and promptly turned in a brilliant, over-the-shoulder catch on his first major league fielding chance. Thereafter, Bill displayed fine form while playing second base for the Twins down the stretch. Bethea was drafted by the Twins from the St. Louis Cardinals' organization in December, 1963.

BORYCA, Leonard Joseph "Len" Infielder Born December 12, 1945, in Omaha, Nebraska. Height: 5 ft., 10 in. Weight: 170 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Single. Lives in Omaha.

Len Boryca was drafted by the Twins last November from the roster of the Boston Red Sox' Seattle farm club of the Pacific Coast League. Although Len played only briefly in the Western Carolinas League last summer, his actions greatly impressed Twins' scouts.

Signed by scout Herb Stein out of George Washington High School in New York City, Rod Carew went on to compile the second best batting average in the Cocoa Rookie League last summer. A shortstop when signed, Rod was switched to second base at Melbourne and did a remarkable job. He continued his fine work last fall with the Twins' St. Petersburg entry in the Florida Instructional League. A native Panamanian, Carew moved to Manhattan during his high school days.

CIMINO, Peter William, Jr. "Pete" Pitcher Born October 17, 1942, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 195 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Bristol, Pennsylvania.

A fireballer, Pete Cimino appears to be on the verge of blossoming into real stardom on the major league level. One of the high spots of Pete's career ended disappointingly for him last year when he pitched a one-hitter at Jacksonville, July 7, but lost, 1-0. Joe Morgan got the only hit, a routine fly ball that was misjudged into a double. Pete took the bull by the horns in his next start, however, hitting a fourth-inning grand-slam in insure his 6-2 win over Columbus.

Although he spent virtually all of the 1964 season in Uncle Sam's Army, Gary Dotter figures high in the plans of Twins' brass for 1965. He pitched impressively in his three appearances for the Twins last September, and his good assortment of stuff together with his herky-jerky style stamp him as a good bet for eventual stardom.

FOSNOW, Gerald Eugene

"Jerry" Pitcher

Born September 21, 1940, in Deshler, Ohio. Height: 6 ft., 4 in. Weight: 195 lbs. Bats right, throws left. Married. Lives in Deshler.

A flame-thrower who joined the Twins in late June of last year, Jerry Fosnow is one of the most highly-regarded young pitchers in the club's system. His outstanding relief work for Atlanta prompted his promotion to the Twins where, although he was used rather sparingly, he managed to establish a strikeout ratio of close to one an inning. In his minor league days, Jerry hurled a no-hit gem for the Selma club in the Alabama-Florida League playoffs, August 20, 1959, blanking Pensacola.

GRANT, James Timothy

"Mudcat"

Pitcher

Born August 13, 1935, in Lacoochee, Florida. Height: 6 ft. Weight: 186 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Shaker Heights, Ohio.

The 'Mudcat' was acquired by the Twins on June 15, 1964, via the trade route, and the change of scenery seemed to be just what the doctor ordered for the muscular righthander. Through the first two months of the season, he'd been able to come up with only three victories while with Cleveland, but he tacked on eleven more with the Twins to come within one of his top previous major league win total. His earned-run average for 166 innings of pitching in a Minnesota uniform was a sparkling 2.82. Possibly even more important than the number of games Jim might win for the Twins is the number of games he will no longer take away from them as a member of the opposition. Over the years, Mudcat proved to be just about the toughest American League righthander for the Twins to beat, compiling a 22-6 lifetime log against them. Grant is talented in the musical field, too, spending the off-season as 'top banana' of the Jim Grant Trio. He was, in fact, the hit of the show at the annual Twin Cities Baseball Writers' Dinner in January. The Columbia Record Corporation has become aware of Jim's talents and are interested in signing him to a recording contract.

HALL, Jimmie Randolph

Outfielder

Born March 17, 1938, in Mount Holly, North Carolina. Height: 6 ft. Weight: 175 lbs. Bats left, throws right. Married. Lives in Mount Holly.

It would be hard to improve on the great rookie season that Jimmie Hall enjoyed in 1963, but the slender North Carolinian came right back in 1964 and upped his batting average some 22 points, while maintaining his top-level extra-base production. Although somewhat overshadowed by the big names of Harmon Killebrew and Tony Oliva on either side of him, Jimmie did not escape notice in '64, being named to the American League's All-Star squad. He is one of those rare athletes known as a four-way performer . . . he can hit, run, throw and field. His great ground-covering ability in centerfield is expected to be of even greater value to the Twins this season since the fences have been pushed back considerably due to the construction of new outfield seating at Metropolitan Stadium.

Perhaps the next member of the '20-Win Club,' Jim Kaat showed his mettle in 1964 by bouncing back from a disappointing 1963 season to log probably his finest year yet in the major leagues. He paced Twins' starters in both victories and earned-run average, and his 13 complete games were just one less than teammate Camilo Pascual and two behind the league-leader, Los Angeles' Dean Chance. For the third straight year, Jim was honored as the outstanding pitcher, defensively, in the American League, for which he received the Rawlings-Sporting News' Gold Glove Award. Last fall, Kaat tackled another field when he accepted a position as sportscaster with station KSMM in Shakopee, Minnesota, for whom he did an outstanding job during the offseason. Jim is one of twelve members of the Twins who have made the Twin Cities their permanent home.

KINDALL, Gerald Donald "Slim" Infielder Born May 27, 1935, in St. Paul, Minnesota. Height: 6 ft., 3 in. Weight: 175 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in St. Anthony Village, Minnesota.

An ex-baseball and basketball star at the University of Minnesota, Jerry Kindall figures prominently in the plans of the Minnesota Twins for 1965. Equally at home at either shortstop or second base, Jerry is considered one of the finest defensive infielders in the business. While at Minnesota, Jerry, who prepped at Washington High School in St. Paul, was an All-America choice in baseball and paced the Gophers to the NCAA championship in 1956. His outstanding play that season gained him a huge bonus contract with the Chicago Cubs and, under the terms of the bonus rule in force at that time, he spent his first two professional seasons with the Chicagoans. He was obtained by the Twins last June 11, in a three-cornered swap involving Cleveland and the Los Angeles Angels . . . a trade which saw Vic Power and Billy Moran switch uniforms, also. This winter, Kindall continued his studies at the University, working toward his master's degree in physical education.

KILLEBREW, Harmon Clayton, Jr. "Harm" Outfielder Born June 29, 1936, in Payette, Idaho. Height: 5 ft., 11 in. Weight: 213 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Ontario, Oregon.

All kinds of homerun records are just over the horizon for Harmon Killebrew, easily the greatest long-ball slugger of the post-war era. After leading the Amer-ican League in homers for the third straight year, and the majors for the second in a row, Harmon now stands in twelfth place among the active homerun hitters in the game. 24 players through the years are numbered among those hitters who have compiled a career total of 300 or more homeruns, and only Cincinnati's Frank Robinson appears likely to beat Killebrew into that select group in 1965. Harmon's homerun frequency of a homer every 12.6 times at bat is exceeded in baseball history only by Babe Ruth's frequency ratio of one every 11.8 trips... and Harm has been edging closer to that figure, year by year. Actually, at age 28, Killebrew has already hit 34 more homers than had Ruth at a similar age. In each of the past four seasons, Harm has totalled better than 40 homeruns, putting him within shooting distance of the Bambino's all-time major league mark of seven straight such seasons, from 1926 through 1932. An outfielder for the past three seasons, Killebrew is scheduled to return to first base in 1965, a position he played previously in 1960 and '61. The first game in which he appears in '65 will be the 1,000th contest of his big league career. Harm also does a bang-up job during the season as a sportscaster, conducting a pre-game telecast regularly on WTCN-TV.

KLIPPSTEIN, John Calvin "Klip" Pitcher Born October 17, 1927, in Washington, D. C. Height: 6 ft., 1 in. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded.

Married. Lives in Chicago, Illinois.

A late-season bullpen mainstay for the Twins in 1964, Johnny Klippstein is one of the reasons the Minnesotans expect their relief corps to be second to none in the American League in the coming campaign. Although 37 years old, Klip seems to get better with age, turning in the finest pair of earned-run averages in his career with Philadelphia in 1963, and with the Twins last year.

KOSTRO, Frank Jerry
Born August 4, 1937, in Windber, Pennsylvania.
Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 190 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Colorado Springs,

A tower of strength in a utility role, Frank Kostro proved himself to be one of the most valuable pinch-hitters in the American League after his acquisition from the Los Angeles Angels on June 11, 1964. Frank batted .286 in pinch-hitting roles for the Twins and, in one stretch, he collected four pinch-hits in a row, six out of seven, and seven out of nine! A handyman, Frank can be pressed into action at any infield position, or in the outfield.

MINCHER, Donald Ray "Minch" First Baseman Born June 24, 1938, in Huntsville, Alabama. Height: 6

ried. Lives in Meridianville, Alabama.

Although playing only half the time, big Don Mincher has collected a total of 40 homeruns over the past two seasons, indicating his potential as an everyday performer. A remarkably improving defensive player, Minch is still young, and seems certain to make his mark as one of the great sluggers of the game. Don has the perfect temperament of the ideal team player, and this past winter he imparted that spirit to the youngsters of Huntsville, Alabama, as a member of that city's recreation department. When not playing baseball, Don is an avid fisherman and bowler.

NIESON, Charles Bassett "Chuck" Pitcher Born September 24, 1942, in Hanford, California. Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Fresno, California.

Moving up the ladder rapidly, Chuck Nieson was beset by misfortunes during his baptism in Triple-A ball at Atlanta last year. He continues, however, to demonstrate the great potential which caused Twin scout Dick Wiencek to sign him for one of the largest bonus outlays ever put forth by the Twins. Chuck set the Boston Red Sox on their ears by fanning five men in two innings of work against them while with the Twins last September, a strong indication of his promise for the future.

NOSSEK, Joseph Rudolph "Joe" Outfielder Born November 8, 1940, in Cleveland, Ohio. Height: 6 ft., 1 in. Weight: 175 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Euclid, Ohio.

The leading batter in the Florida Instructional League last fall with a mark of .350, Joe Nossek reports to the Twins this spring determined to garner a place on the squad as either an infielder or an outfielder. Until he reported to St. Petersburg last fall, Joe had been a centerfielder, and an outstanding one. With the parent Twins strong in the outfield, however, Instructional League manager Del Wilber used Nossek extensively at third base, and the slender Ohioan showed a remarkable aptitude for the position, winding up with the top defensive mark among the league's hot corner men. Joe is a former athletic great at Ohio University.

OLIVA, Pedro, Jr. "Tony"

Outfielder

Born July 20, 1941, in Pinar del Rio, Cuba. Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 180 lbs. Bats left, throws right. Single. Lives in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Seldom, if ever, has a rookie player crashed onto the major league scene in the manner of Tony Oliva in 1964. The first rookie ever to lead the American League in hitting, and the first clear-cut rookie to pace either league, Tony dominated every offensive department except homeruns and rbi's. Besides batting average, he led the league in hits, doubles, total bases, runs scored and times at bat, and he missed tying for the league-leadership in triples by just one. His total base and atbat figures represent all-time major league records for a rookie. And in the field, Tony was equally outstanding, exhibiting great speed and displaying one of the finest throwing arms ever to come into the American League. One of a family of ten children, Tony, who used his brother's passport to get into this country from Cuba in 1961, was an overwhelming choice for the rightfield spot on the American League All-Star team last July. His great batting feats of 1964 are all the more amazing when it's considered that the big knuckle on the middle finger of his right hand was swollen to double normal size for the balance of the season after Tony injured it in Boston, May 15. Tony 'O' is a solid bet to become a perennial repeater for the league batting crown . . . a modern-day Ty Cobb!

Jim Ollom enjoyed a fine season for the Twins' Bismarck-Mandan Northern League farm club in 1964, after having been drafted out of the New York Yankee organization the previous December. Then, last fall, Jim continued the fine work with the Twins' St. Petersburg entry in the Florida Instructional League, posting a 3-1 mark. PASCUAL, Camilo Alberto, Jr.

Pitcher

Born January 20, 1934, in Havana, Cuba. Height: 5 ft., 11 in. Weight: 185 bs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Bloomington, Minnesota.

Second only to the great Walter Johnson in the annals of pitchers for Griffith ballclubs, Camilo Pascual is rapidly acquiring stature as one of the great pitchers of all time. Since the move of the Twins to Minnesota in October, 1960, only New York's Whitey Ford has copped more victories in American League play than has Pascual. And, only three National League hurlers exceed Camilo's total of wins over that stretch . . . Los Angeles' Don Drysdale and Sandy Koufax, and the San Francisco Giants' Juan Marichal. In 1964, the curving Cuban passed Ford in the all-time strikeout tables and, in fact, moved ahead of Hall of Famer Ed Walsh into 23rd place on the list of the game's strikeout artists. Actively, he is exceeded in this respect only by Warren Spahn, who has eight more full years of service than Camilo, and Robin Roberts, who has been around six seasons longer than Pascual. Although his win total was down last season, 1964 was a very gratifying year, personally, for Pascual. After several years of trying, he was finally able to get his parents out of Castro's Cuba. The elder Pascuals arrived in the Twin Cities during the summer and spent the winter here with Camilo and his family. Camilo purchased a home in Bloomington, Minnesota, and spent the off-season in the employ of Southtown Chrysler-Plymouth, Inc.

For the first time in his career, Jim Perry was used almost exclusively as a reliefer in 1964, and the tall righthander out of Campbell College in North Carolina proved most effective for the Twins in long relief roles. In fact, Jim enjoyed his best season, ERA-wise, since his rookie year with Cleveland in 1959. In 1960, Perry and Baltimore's Chuck Estrada were the top winners among American League pitchers, a feat which earned Jim the league's 'Sophomore of the Year' honors that season. An employee of Hansord Pontiac Corp., during the offseason. Jim has become a full-time resident of the Twin Cities. His brother, Gaylord, pitches for the San Francisco Giants.

PLEIS, William III

"Shorty"

Pitcher

Born August 5, 1938, in St. Louis, Missouri. Height: 5 ft., 10 in. Weight: 175 lbs. Bats and throws lefthanded. Married. Lives in Kirkwood, Missouri.

The pitcher with the most mileage, gamewise, for the Minnesota Twins in 1964, Bill Pleis has established himself as one of the 'dependables' of the major league relief-pitching fraternity. Shorty is known as a 'winning' type of pitcher because, although his earned-run averages have not been overly impressive in his four seasons with the Twins, his ratio of wins against losses has been outstanding.

Catcher

Born January 23, 1944, in San Diego, California. Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 190 lbs. Bats left, throws right. Single. Lives in Houston, Texas.

After catching his first full professional season with a single ballclub, exceedingly high hopes are being expressed by Twins' brass for the progress of young Paul Ratliff in 1965. The only deterrent to these hopes is the fact that Paul spent the off-season in the six-month military program with the U.S. Army Tank Corps and, consequently, will miss most, if not all, of the spring training season.

A glove whiz, Dick Reese was not only the top defensive first-sacker in the Carolina League last season, but he was also the leading hitter among the loop's first basemen. In the fall, he repeated those honors while performing with the Twins' St. Petersburg entry in the Florida Instructional League, where he batted .294. Reese, drafted by the Twins out of the Detroit Tigers' system a couple of years back, has even been compared with former Twin Vic Power as a defensive player.

REEVE, Dennis Howard "Huck" Shortstop Born March 30, 1944, in Compton, California. Height: 5 ft., 10 in. Weight: 160 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Single. Lives in Downey, California.

Signed originally by the St. Louis Cardinals out of Cerritos Junior College in California, Dennis Reeve was selected by the Twins off the roster of the Cards' Jacksonville International League farm club in last November's draft sessions at Houston. Although his professional experience has been limited, Reeve has impressed all observers as a definite major league prospect. Last summer, he was with the Cardinals' club of the Sarasota Rookie League.

ROLAND, James Ivan, Jr. "Jim" Pitcher Born December 14, 1942, in Franklin, North Carolina. Height: 6 ft., 3 in. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats right, throws left. Married. Lives in Orlando, Florida.

Jim Roland showed flashes of brilliance in 1964, in what was otherwise a rather disappointing season for the young lefthander. Probably his standout performance of the season came at Yankee Stadium on May 19, when he stopped the New Yorkers on just seven hits and two runs over twelve innings. Jim, who fanned eight, left the game for a pinch-hitter in the 13th, but got credit for the win when the Twins erupted for five runs in the frame. His other victory during the season was equally impressive, though, a 2-hit, 3-2, win over the Boston Red Sox on May 29. Both Boston hits came in the second inning, one of them a two-run homer by Dick Stuart. Jim pitched last winter for the Arecibo Club in the Puerto Rican Winter League.

ROLLINS, Richard John "Rich" Third Baseman Born April 16, 1938, in Mt. Pleasant, Pennsylvania. Height: 5 ft., 10 in. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Burnsville, Minnesota.

Probably the most religiously-conditioned athlete in major league baseball, Rich Rollins leaves no stone unturned in his quest to make himself the finest practitioner of his art, both at bat and in the field. The entire story of Rollins' rise to major league stardom is one of hard work and devotion to conditioning. It was just this kind of attitude which enabled Rich, who is not blessed with great speed, to tie teammate Zollo Versalles for the league-lead in triples last season. While it's true that Rich's batting average of .270 in 1964 has to be considered an off-year for him, it's also true that among the American League's third basemen only the circuit's Most Valuable Player, Brooks Robinson, and Chicago's Pete Ward out-hit him. Anyone looking for that kind of '100% effort' that goes into making winning ball clubs need only look toward Rich Rollins. During the off-season, Rich put that same kind of effort into his work as a member of the Twins' public relations department's winter touring program, proving to be a big favorite with Twins' fans from Wisconsin Rapids to the Black Hills.

SEVCIK, John Joseph Catcher Born July 11, 1942, in Oak Park, Illinois. Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 205 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Berwyn, Illinois.

A standout at the University of Missouri, John Sevcik and his brother Jim were signed to Twins' contracts by scout Bill Messmann last June, thus becoming the third set of twins to be signed by the Minnesota club...the others were the Overstreets and the Sorensons . . . since its move to the Upper Midwest in October, 1960. John showed so much promise in the Midwest League last summer that he was promoted to the parent roster. Jim, a third baseman, also performed at Wisconsin Rapids, batting .261.

"Seeb" SIEBLER, Dwight Leroy

Born August 5, 1937, in Columbus, Nebraska. Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 184 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Omaha, Nebraska.

Hampered by arm miseries in the spring of 1964, Dwight Siebler is being counted upon to claim a berth on the Twins' pitching staff for 1965. Dwight started and finished the 1964 season with the Twins, but spent the bulk of the campaign with the Atlanta Crackers of the International League where he turned in an impressive strikeout total. Undoubtedly the highlight of the serious young righthander's season came on August 13, when he blanked the Toronto Maple Leafs, 4-0, on a one-hitter . . . a 6th-inning double by Bob Sadowski. Seeb is also quite a bowler, having copped top honors in the annual Major League Players Bowling Tourney in Tampa, last spring.

1964 was a year of great disappointment for Dick Stigman. Although the tall, northern Minnesotan pitched effective ball throughout the season, his mates were unable to back him with any kind of scoring punch. In the 21 decisions in which Stigman was involved, the Twins scored more than five runs on only one occasion, that being a 9-3 verdict over Cleveland on August 15. In one losing effort, his mates got him five runs. Four times (two of them winning games), Dick was treated to four runs. Twice they scored three runs for him, and on three occasions they got him a pair of runs. They backed him up with a single tally in five of his starts. And, five times Stigman was blanked, the most times a Twin hurler has been whitewashed in a season since the club arrived in Minnesota. So, in his 21 decisions, Dick was backed with a total of just 47 runs, an average of only 2.2 runs per game. The pendulum is due to swing in the other direction for Dick in 1965. During the past winter, he was employed as a Twin Motor Lodges.

THEOBALD, Ronald Merrill "Ron" Second Baseman Born July 28, 1943, in Oakland, California. Height: 5 ft., 8 in. Weight: 165 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Single. Lives in Richmond, California.

A highly-touted star during his days at the University of Arizona, Ron Theobald is given an excellent chance of making the major league grade in spite of the fact that his size would seem to be against him. Indicative of the high regard held for him in the Chicago Cubs' organization is the fact that they started him out in tough Class AA Texas League ball after signing him off the Arizona campus. The Twins obtained the diminutive hustler via the draft route at Houston last fall. He was selected off the roster of the Cubs' Salt Lake City Pacific Coast League farm club. He spent the offseason in the six-month military program with the U. S. Marines.

TOVAR, Cesar Leonard "Pepito" Infielder Born July 3, 1940, in Caracas, Venezuela. Height: 5 ft., 9 in. Weight: 155 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Single. Lives in Caracas.

Obtained from the Cincinnati Reds on December 4, 1964, in exchange for pitcher Gerry Arrigo, Cesar Tovar comes to the Twins amidst glowing scouting reports, not only from the club's own sleuths, but from without as well. Tovar played with the Twins' Pacific Coast League farm at Dallas-Fort Worth in 1963, on option from Cincinnati, and impressed manager Jack McKeon as perhaps the finest major league prospect on the club, with the single exception of Tony Oliva. Possessed with tremendous speed, Tovar's natural position is shortstop, but he is equally at home at third base, second base and the outfield. In three of the past four seasons, he has led his league in stolen bases, starting with a league-record 88 in the New York-Penn League in 1961. He copped 56 sacks in 1962, when he led the Carolina League in batting and was named Topps 'Player of the Year' for the circuit. And, he ropps Player of the rear for the circuit. And, he swiped 40 bases to pace the Coast League last season. In 1963, he led the PCL with 41 doubles and 115 runs-scored. He was named to the All-Star squads of each of the leagues in which he played from 1960 through 1963. This winter, playing for his hometown Caracas club, Tovar finished fourth in the Venezuelan League batting chase with a .339-mark, as Caracas copped the league championship.

VALDESPINO, Hilario "Sandy" Outfielder Born January 14, 1939, in San Jose de las Lajas, Havana, Cuba. Height: 5 ft., 8 in. Weight: 170 lbs. Bats and throws lefthanded. Single. Lives in Miami, Florida.

The leading hitter in the International League last year, Sandy Valdespino should prove to be a valuable addition to the Minnesota Twins in 1965. Highly popular with the fans at each of his stops along the baseball trail, Sandy's speed, batting prowess and all-out aggressiveness stand to make him just as big a favorite with the fans of the Upper Midwest.

VERSALLES, Zoilo, Jr. "Zee" Shortstop Born December 18, 1940, in Havana, Cuba. Height: 5 ft., 10 in. Weight: 160 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Bloomington, Minnesota.

Rapidly coming into his own as a fine hitter as well as a top-drawer shortstop, Zoilo Versalles tied with teammate Rich Rollins for the league-lead in triples in 1964, the second straight season the speedy Cuban has paced the circuit in this category. In addition, Zoilo broke his own club record for homeruns by a short-stop. He has also become a most durable player, missing stop. He has also become a most uniable player, massing only eight of the Twins' 487 games over the past three seasons. The American League's All-Star shortstop in 1963, Versalles is confident that the addition of Billy Martin to the Twins' coaching staff is a change that will help him immeasurably in his quest to become recognized as the finest shortstop in the business. During the off-season, Zoilo has become an old hand at the rostrum, proving himself popular with Upper Midwest fans as a member of the Twins' winter touring program.

"Jay" WARD, John Francis Infielder-Outfielder Born September 9, 1938, in Brookfield, Missouri. Height: 6 ft., 1 in. Weight: 190 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Owensville, Missouri.

An outstanding long-ball hitter throughout his career. Jay Ward is given an excellent chance of landing a major league job with the Twins in 1965. Ward is a jack-of-all-trades type of player who performed admirably at second base for the Twins last September, after his recall from the Pacific Coast League.

WHITBY, William Edward "Billy" Pitcher Born July 29, 1943, in Crewe, Virginia. Height: 6 ft., 1 in. Weight: 195 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Single. Lives in Victoria, Virginia.

Bill Whitby spent a couple of weeks with the Twins in mid-season 1964, and appeared to lack only the experience necessary to make the major league grade. After his fine season in the Southern League, during which he ranked seventh in the league's earned-run tables, it's hoped that 1965 will be the year that Bill capitalizes on his world of potential. Whitby put in a six-month tour with the U. S. Army Tank Corps during the off-season.

WORTHINGTON, Allan Fulton "Al" Pitcher Born February 5, 1929, in Birmingham, Alabama. Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 205 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Birmingham.

Al Worthington's sixth arrival on the major league scene, with the Twins in 1964, proved even more spectacular than his first, when he broke in with a pair of shutouts for the New York Giants in 1953. Desperate for a bullpen stopper after arm trouble felled Bill Dailey, the Twins purchased Worthington from Cincinnati's San Diego farm club last June 26. It was hoped that Al would be the answer to the club's relief problems, but never was it even dreamed that he would turn in anything close to the fantastic job that he did. In just three months, he was credited with a total of 14 saves . . . these in addition to his five victories. From his first appearance on June 28, through his twentieth on August 11, Al did not allow an earned run, a period covering a total of 37½ innings. In only eight of his 41 appearances did he allow an earned run, and on only two of those occasions did he give up more than one. A former collegiate standout at the University of Alabama, Worthington played semi-pro ball at Fulda, Minnesota, in 1950, where he met and married a Minnesota girl, the former Shirley Lee Reusse. Al is currently continuing his studies toward a degree in physical education at Howard College, in Birmingham, Alabama. A member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Al devotes a great deal of his time to church and youth work.

ZIMMERMAN, Gerald Robert "Zim" Catcher Born September 21, 1934, in Omaha, Nebraska. Height: 6 ft., 2 in. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Milwaukie, Oregon.

Rated one of the finest receivers in the game, Jerry Zimmerman gives the Twins the kind of depth in the catching department that any club which considers itself a contender must have. Jerry also makes a strong contribution to team morale, combining a lively sense of humor with a strong willingness to work. Before joining the Twins, Zim was credited with being a real sparkplug for the Cincinnati team that copped the National League flag in 1961.

FARMHANDS INVITED TO SPRING TRAINING

DAILEY, William Garland "Bill" Pitcher Born May 13, 1935, in Arlington, Virginia. Height: 6 ft., 3 in. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Richfield, Minnesota.

Much of the Minnesota Twins' hopes for 1965 rest on the comeback of one Bill Dailey. Counted upon to keep the Twins in the pennant fight during 1964, Bill was waylaid early in the season by arm miseries that put him out of action for virtually the entire season. Rest for the arm, a strenuous conditioning program and the extraction of some troublesome teeth over the winter months have buoyed Bill's spirits once again, and the tall sidewinder is confident that a return to his 1963 form is in the offing. Bill was employed during the offseason by the Twins' public relations department, for whom he proved a smash hit as a member of the club's wintertime goodwill entourage.

GREGSON, Donald Charles "Greg" Pitcher Born July 20, 1942, in Los Angeles, California. Height: 6 ft., 1 in. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Crestline, California.

The leading pitcher in the Florida Instructional League last fall with a brilliant earned-run average of 1.07 for the Twins' St. Petersburg entry, Don Gregson is a converted infielder who has made giant strides toward major league stardom as a hurler. A third baseman at Wytheville in 1962, Don was having his troubles at the bat at Erie in 1963, when the decision was made to try him on the mound. After just half a season of pitching at Erie, Gregson blossomed as one of the outstanding flingers in the tough, Class AA Southern League last summer, placing fourth in the circuit's pitching derby. His continued successes at St. Petersburg, where his 4-4 record included three shtuouts, stamp him as a man to watch in the Twins' 1965 spring training camp.

HENRY, Ronald Baxter "Scratch" Catcher Born August 7, 1936, in Chester, Pennsylvania. Height: 6 ft., 1 in. Weight: 180 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Chester.

Ron Henry was brought up to bolster the Twins' pinch-hitting corps in mid-season of 1964, after having enjoyed an outstanding first-half of the season at Charlotte. In fact, the husky receiver was leading the Southern circuit in homeruns at the time of his call-up. Ron, who reports to spring training as a member of the Denver roster, is an accomplished mimic who enlivens the team travels with his antics.

KOSCO, Andrew John "Andy" Outfielder Born October 5, 1941, in Youngstown, Ohio. Height: 6 ft., 3 in. Weight: 205 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Struthers, Ohio.

Signed by the Detroit Tigers for an estimated $80,000 in 1959, Andy Kosco came into his own after joining the Twins' Bismarck-Mandan farm last June. His manager there, Vern Morgan, convinced Andy to discard his old switch-hitting style and concentrate on batting from the right side. As a result, Andy catapulted from a .275 average, with five homeruns for his six weeks with Duluth - Superior, to a season - ending Northern League 'Triple Crown' of .346, 28 homers and 97 rbi's. And, dramatically, he copped all three titles in a tingling, last-day slugging match with Winnipeg's Felix DeLeon. Normally an outfielder, Kosco has also taken an occasional turn at first base. Until this year, when he played with the Twins' St. Petersburg club in the Florida Instructional League, Andy has spent the offseason studying law at Youngstown University.

The strikeout king of the International League in 1964, Jim Merritt is a strong bet to cop a starting role on the Twing, nitching stoff this general League in 1964.

The strikeout king of the International League in 1964, Jim Merritt is a strong bet to cop a starting role on the Twins' pitching staff this season. Long and lean, Jim has a world of stuff, and is best described by the phrase, "knows how to pitch!" Jim enjoyed a redletter day last June 4, when he blanked the Columbus Jets, 8-0, on a one-hitter, walking two and striking out nine. The one hit off him was a 3rd-inning single by Rex Johnston.

NELSON, Melvin Frederick "Nellie" Pitcher Born May 30, 1936, in San Diego, California. Height: 6 ft. Weight: 185 lbs. Bats right, throws left. Single. Lives in San Bernardino, California.

After previous major league stints with the St. Louis Cardinals and Los Angeles Angels, Mel Nelson is shooting for a return to the big show in 1965 with the Minnesota Twins. An outfielder when he signed his first contract with the Cardinal organization in 1954, Mel began his conversion to the pitching ranks at Billings in 1957, and became a moundsman full-time in the latter part of the 1958 season at Houston, then in the Texas League.

QUILICI, Frank Ralph

Second Baseman

Born May 11, 1939, in Chicago, Illinois. Height: 6 ft. Weight: 175 lbs. Bats and throws righthanded. Married. Lives in Wilson, North Carolina.

An All-America baseball selection during his senior year at Western Michigan University in 1961, Frank Quilici has established an outstanding reputation as a 'glove man' during his four seasons of minor league play. He embellished this reputation last fall by turning in a phenomenal .989-fielding mark at second base with the St. Petersburg Twins of the Florida Instructional League. In addition, Frank has been gaining rapid strides as a hitter since his professional debut with Erie in 1961.

RETZER, Kenneth Leo "Ken" Catcher Born April 30, 1934, in Wood River, Illinois. Height: 6 ft. Weight: 175 lbs. Bats left, throws right. Single.

Lives in San Diego, California.

When the Twins' organization obtained Ken Retzer from the Washington Senators' system in a trade for Joe McCabe, they did so with an eye to giving the club's catching staff the left-hand-hitting balance it seems to need. Retzer was with the Senators for close to three seasons before being sent to Toronto last summer, and always displayed good batting punch. He made his mark as a receiver, too, with probably his most memorable moment being the game he worked behind the plate as Tom Cheney fanned 21 Baltimore batters over the course of 16 innings, the most strikeouts ever recorded by a single pitcher in a given game. Ken is a former student at Jefferson City Junior College and Central Missouri State.

ROGGENBURK, Garry Earl "Roggy" Pitcher Born April 16, 1940, in Cleveland, Ohio. Height: 6 ft., 6 in. Weight: 195 lbs. Bats right, throws left. Married. Lives in Cleveland.

Sidelined for the entire 1964 season after a spring training operation to remove bone chips from his pitching elbow, Garry Roggenburk is being counted upon to pick up in 1965 where he left off in 1963 as an outstanding southpaw reliefer. The tallest Twin, Garry sparked the Dayton University basketball team to the NIT championship in 1962, before inking a Twin pact.

TWINS' MEDICAL STAFF

GEORGE (DOC) LENTZ is in his nineteenth season as the team's trainer. A native of Williamsport, Pa., he has trained teams at Dickinson Seminary and Catholic and George Washington Universities. For ten years, he also taught classes for trainers at George Washington. In fact, he still maintains his associate professorship there. He also served as head trainer of the Washington Redskins of the National Football League for 14 years, concluding with the 1961 season. His patented protective helmet is used by most major league teams.

DR. WILLIAM E. PROFFITT, JR., took over as Twins' club physician after four years in the same position with the now defunct Minneapolis Millers of the American Association. Born in Danville, Ill., schooled in Buffalo, N. Y., and graduated from the University of Minnesota, Dr. Proffitt played halfback for the Gophers in 1932, '33 and '34, the latter a national championship year. Dr. Proffitt also lettered in track and was the University's heavy-weight boxing champion in 1934 and '35. An active swimmer, water skier and golfer, Dr. Proffitt, who resides in Hopkins, Minn., is married and has a son and daughter.
