punched in the deciding run in the sixth against Albury.

Twins farmhand Bob Gorinski of Orlando doubled and 37-year-old Velasquez followed with a double for the run.

The game, in which most Twins regulars played four or five innings for the 2,423 spectators before getting a rest, kicked off a long Eastern road trip for Minnesota.

The Twins play twice in Cleveland beginning tonight and follow that with three-game sets in Boston, New York and Baltimore. They return to Metropolitan Stadium Aug. 26 against New York.
