

Twins

Ferrell will either remain with the Bears or report to Wilson of the Carolina League.

Zollo Versalles, who returned as the Twins' shortstop last night with Cesar Tovar moving over to second base, and Jimmie Hall hit sixth-inning homers off Fosnow to spark last night's triumph before 9,841 persons.

Keller, up from Charlotte with a 3-0 record, displayed a good fast ball. He gave up three hits and two runs in a nervous first inning, then one hit over the four innings he pitched for Minnesota. The 23-year-old right-handed pitcher from the University of Indiana struck out two and walked one.

THERE WAS some talk of taking Keller right up to the Twins instead of giving him a Denver stopover. All of this, however, is subject to conference.

Ferrell, a right-hander from Orlando, allowed two hits and one run in four innings. He showed a good fast ball and better breaking stuff than Keller. Garry Roggenbuck pitched the ninth inning.

Denver is so hard up for pitching that Ermer went so far as to use infielder Orlando Martinez in ninth-inning relief.
