JIM POHLAD

CONTROL OWNER

2025 marked Jim Pohlad's 42nd season with the Minnesota Twins, owned by the Pohlad family since 1984. Jim continues to be involved in Twins as the Control Owner, serving as the club's primary liaison with Major League Baseball.

In addition to his work with the Twins, Jim is the Chair of the Pohlad Investment Committee and serves on several committees for Major League Baseball.

Through his role on the board of the Pohlad Family Foundation, Jim is engaged in programs that work to reduce disparities among families and youth experiencing homelessness in the Twin Cities. In past years, he has supported and provided leadership to the Greater Twins Cities United Way, Minneapolis Institute of Arts, the Greater Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, The Minneapolis Foundation and Park Nicollet Health Services and Melrose Institute.

Jim resides with his family in the city of Minneapolis.

JOE POHLAD

EXECUTIVE CHAIR

Joe Pohlad, who has served on the Pohlad Companies' Board of Directors since 2023, was named Executive Chair of the Minnesota Twins in November 2022. Joe provides day-to-day leadership, oversight and strategic guidance for the Twins' baseball and business operations.

During his tenure as Executive Chair, Joe has been instrumental in establishing, and bringing to life, the organization's innovative new mission: To set the standard for a modern sports and entertainment brand that shapes a better tomorrow for all. At the league level, he is a member of Major League Baseball's Long-Range Planning Committee.

Joe began his Pohlad Companies career with the club in 2007. He has held various positions within the organization, including in the areas of baseball operations, marketing and communications. As Executive Vice President, Brand Strategy & Growth from 2018-22, he had oversight of the club's brand marketing, content production, game day experience and innovation. Joe also spearheaded the creation of the Twins Accelerator program and led the development of the Twins' new marks and uniforms – which debuted to widespread acclaim in 2023. He was named to Twin Cities Business' list of "100 People to Know" in 2020 and 2024.

In 2015, Joe became CEO of Go Media, home to radio station Go 96.3. Under Joe's leadership, Go Media diversified its format and reach in the Twin Cities region. He led the transition of 96.3 from a classic rock and Twins Baseball format to modern alternative and, with the purchase of 95.3, launched a modern hip hop station in 2016.

Joe joined the Pohlad Foundation Board of Directors in 2017 and, along with his cousin Kiki, became the first grandchildren of Carl and Eloise to serve in this role. Upon its creation in 2020, he joined the foundation's Racial Justice Grants Committee, which plays a key role in advancing its Racial Justice program.

A Twin Cities native, Joe graduated from Stonehill College in Easton, MA with a B.A. in communications.

Joe resides in Edina, MN, with his wife, Sara, and their sons, Sam, Noah and Issac.

DEREK FALVEY

PRESIDENT, BASEBALL & BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Derek Falvey was named President, Baseball and Business Operations on March 3, 2025 after leading the club's baseball operation for eight seasons (2017-24), serving in the role of President, Baseball Operations from 2019-24 and Executive Vice President, Chief Baseball Officer from October 2016 through the 2019 season.

As a member of the Twins' executive leadership team, Falvey has been instrumental in accelerating the club's organization-wide commitment to employee growth, development and mental health. Falvey has also been an active partner in evolving the club's strategic planning process, focus on innovation and dedication to community engagement.

In his role on the baseball side, Falvey is responsible for establishing the vision and related strategies for the club's baseball operations. Specifically, he oversees all aspects of the department, including: the major league team, coaches and support staff; contract negotiations; player development; scouting; research and development; medical; and communications. On the business side, he oversees the team's day-to-day operations, strategic planning and interaction with Major League Baseball.

During Falvey's tenure leading the baseball operations department, the Twins went 620-574 (.519), resulting in Minnesota recording the 10th-most wins in Major League Baseball over those eight seasons. Additionally, under Falvey, the team reached the postseason four times, winning the American League Wild Card in 2017 and the American League Central Division in 2019, '20 and '23. Additionally, he was named to Twin Cities Business' list of "100 People to Know" in both 2017, 2018 and 2025.

Falvey's career in baseball started with Cleveland in November 2007 when he began an internship in Baseball Operations. In his first three years with the now-Guardians franchise, Derek assisted both the Amateur and International Scouting departments, before spending the 2011 season as Assistant Director of Baseball Operations. He was promoted to Director of Baseball Operations in December 2011, then elevated to Assistant General Manager in 2016.

During his time in Cleveland, Derek assisted President of Baseball Operations Chris Antonetti and General Manager Mike Chernoff in all areas of baseball operations, including financial, statistical, and contractual dealings, and also contributed to all aspects of professional and amateur player procurement and development. He also oversaw the advance scouting process and worked closely with manager Terry Francona and the major league coaching staff to assist in the day-to-day management of major league operations.

Derek played baseball at Trinity College in Hartford, CT, where he earned a degree in economics in June 2005. After graduating, Falvey returned home to the Boston, MA area, where he worked until joining the Cleveland organization.

Derek resides in Edina, MN, with his wife, Meghan, their sons, Jack and Ryan, and daughter, Brynn.

DAVE ST. PETER

STRATEGIC ADVISOR

One of the most consequential executives in Twins and recent Minnesota sports history, Dave St. Peter shifted to the role of Strategic Advisor on March 3, 2025 after a 22-year tenure as club president. St. Peter, who originally joined the organization in 1990, was named the fourth president in Minnesota Twins history in November 2002 and assumed the Chief Executive Officer title in December 2016, will continue to partner with the Pohlad family, Derek Falvey and Twins executive leadership to provide guidance on a range of key development issues, including the continued long-term evolution of Target Field and the club's new broadcast partnership with Major League Baseball media, among others.

St. Peter's monumental tenure as club president saw the Twins organization reestablish itself in the hearts and minds of Minnesotans with an on-field resurgence in the early 2000s; ensure its long-term future in the state with the construction, operation and ongoing improvement of the award-winning Target Field; serve as a primary catalyst for the emergence and evolution of Minneapolis' North Loop area; become a recognized industry leader for community engagement and environmental stewardship; reward fans with innovative, best-in-class experiences; empower its employees to grow and thrive; and reemerge in recent seasons as a perennial Postseason contender.

St. Peter helped foster a model public-private partnership with Hennepin County and the Minnesota Ballpark Authority to drive the approval, design, construction, opening and continued development of Target Field. One of the most unique and spectacular venues in MLB, the Twins' home ballpark welcomed a franchise-record 3.2 million fans in 2010, was honored as the 2011 Sports Facility of the Year by Sports Business Journal, was lauded by ESPN as having the best stadium experience in all of professional sports, and continues to be nationally recognized as a premier sports and entertainment venue entering its 16th year.

St. Peter's leadership was also instrumental in securing the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® for Target Field, a New Year's Day extravaganza described in the Star Tribune as a "postcard for Minnesota"; construction of a new player-development Academy in the Dominican Republic; hosting the 2014 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, which earned finalist honors from Sports Business Journal for "Event of the Year"; expansion of the Lee Health Sports Complex in Fort Myers, FL — named Ballpark Digest's 2015 "Major Ballpark Renovation of the Year"; and in crafting a partnership with Hennepin County for the design and programming of Minnesota's award-winning intermodal transit hub — Target Field Station. In 2020, St. Peter led the Twins' effort to build a new, player development-focused partnership with the St. Paul Saints.

The 2025 season marked St. Peter's 36th with the Twins. He joined the organization as an intern in 1990 and over his first decade with the franchise held a variety of positions including Pro Shop Manager, Communications Manager, Vice President of Corporate Communications and Senior Vice President of Business Affairs. St. Peter has been a passionate advocate behind the efforts to make the Twins a more inclusive organization; the significant growth of the award-winning Minnesota Twins Community Fund and its focus on growing the games of baseball and softball; development of the team's "Magic Moments" customer service initiative and the nationally-lauded "Go Twins, Go Green" environmental stewardship program; the club's new broadcast partnership with MLB Media and the expansion of the Treasure Island Baseball Network; and efforts to celebrate the rich history of the Washington Senators/Twins franchise as underscored by expansive alumni engagement — including the creation of the Twins Hall of Fame.

The "Twins Tradition" of Passion, Hustle, Heart and Fun has flourished under St. Peter's leadership. During St. Peter's 22 years as president, the Twins organization advanced to Postseason play 10 times, was twice named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America (2002 and '04), was the collective 2006 Star Tribune "Sportsperson of the Year" and honored by the publication seven times as one of the "Top 100" workplaces in Minnesota, was recognized by the U.S. Green Building Council with a 2019 Greenbuild Leadership Award, and was a finalist for Sports Business Journal's 2019 "Team of the Year" Award, among many other accolades.

Honoring his exceptional stewardship of the Twins and enduring legacy of community impact, St. Peter was inducted into Twin Cities Business' Minnesota Business Hall of Fame in July 2025. Previously, he was named to Sports Business Journal's and Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal's "Forty under 40" lists. In 2018, he was recognized by the Positive Coaching Alliance as Minnesota's Triple-Impact Competitor Business Executive of the Year. In 2022, Northern Star Scouting recognized St. Peter with the Spurgeon Award in appreciation for service as a role model for youth through career excellence and community service.

At the league level, St. Peter serves as a member of the MLB Media Board as well as a Trustee on the MLB Player Pension Committee. Over the years he has also been active with a variety of civic and nonprofit organizations including the Minneapolis Downtown Council, the Minneapolis Regional Chamber of Commerce, Meet Minneapolis, Athletes Committed to Educating Students (ACES), YMCA of the North, Ronald McDonald House, Pitch In For Baseball & Softball, Park Nicollet Foundation and the Bob Allison Ataxia Research Center. St. Peter currently co-chairs Minnesota Sports & Events, sits on the Steering Committee for the Minneapolis Downtown Council's Vision 2035, and serves on the Boards for the Minnesota Business Partnership and the University of North Dakota Alumni Association Foundation.

St. Peter was born in Bismarck, North Dakota, and graduated from the University of North Dakota in 1989. Dave has three grown children and makes his home in Chanhassen, MN.

Jeremy Zoll completed his first year as the club's Executive Vice President, General Manager after being named to that role in November of 2024. 2025 marked his eighth season with the club after previously serving as Vice President, Assistant General Manager from 2020-24, and as Director of Minor League Operations from 2018-19. Zoll is the seventh general manager in Twins history, following Thad Levine (2016-24), Terry Ryan (2011-16 and 1994-2007), Bill Smith (2007-11), Andy MacPhail (1986-94), Howard Fox (1985-86) and Calvin Griffith (1961-84).

In his current role, Jeremy partners with Derek Falvey, to lead all facets of the Twins' baseball operations, including major league operations, scouting, player development and player procurement. Prior to his current role, Zoll helped evolve the Twins' performance team - in partnership with Dr. Christopher Camp - from sports medicine and strength and conditioning to nutrition and mental health. He also has maintained oversight of the club's player development system, which graduated multiple prospects to the Twins over the past several seasons.

Zoll's professional experience began with a summer internship with the Cincinnati Reds in 2011, which was followed by a video internship in 2012 for Toronto's minor league affiliate in Vancouver. In 2013, he started working for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, where he coordinated the organization's efforts in advance scouting. After spending three years with the Angels, Zoll worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers, serving as their Assistant Director of Player Development for two seasons (2016-17). While with the Dodgers, he worked on a variety of organizational initiatives ranging from developmental player plans to experimental programs with the Research and Development department.

Zoll grew up in Ridgewood, NJ, and earned his Bachelor of Arts in East Asian Studies with a minor in Economics from Haverford College, while also catching and serving as a captain in his senior season for the Fords baseball team.

PERSONAL: Ryan Patrick Fitzgerald...Instagram: @ryrthisguy...he and teammate James Outman look eerily alike (similar dark, curly hair, both left-handed hitters), to the point that some folks started calling them "the twins" during the 2025 season; on September 8, 2025 in Anaheim, Outman homered and an unnamed Twins beat reporter accidentally interviewed Fitzgerald postgame instead...Fitz politely answered the questions to the best of his ability (about a homer he didn't hit in a game he didn't play in).

Despite being promoted to St. Paul in June and later making his major league debut in July, right-hander Pierson Ohl led the team in ERA (2.08) and WHIP (0.90) among pitchers with at least 20.0 innings, and Mike Paredes led in wins (11) and innings pitched (103.2). Rosario (OF), Kyler Fedko (DH), Culpepper (UTL) and Ohl (RP) were all named to the Texas League Postseason All-Star Team.

HIGH-A CEDAR RAPIDS (74-63, Midwest League West Division) — The Kernels posted their 12th-straight winning season and reached the Postseason for the 11th time in 12 years after missing out last season. After clinching the division in the first half, securing a playoff spot with a record of 41-28, they recorded just a 31-32 record in the second half, finishing the regular season at 72-60 and placing second in the Midwest League West Division, as well as fourth in the Midwest League overall. Cedar Rapids beat Beloit in three games to secure the Midwest League West Division title, sending them to their third Midwest League Championship in five years. However, the West Michigan Whitecaps defeated the Kernels in just two games to take the crown. They tied for first out of 12 Midwest League teams in triples (41), ranked second in doubles (237), third in runs scored (640) and RBI (578), fourth in home runs (102) and sixth in stolen bases (180). The pitching staff ranked fifth ERA (4.31), T-10th in strikeouts (1,077) and 10th in home runs allowed (69). Infielder and Twins No. 13 prospect Brandon Winokur ranked T-1st in the Midwest League in home runs (17), T-2nd in games played (122) and T-4th in RBI (68). Catcher Eduardo Tait was traded to the Twins from Philadelphia alongside right-hander Mick Abel in exchange for reliever Jhoan Duran. Tait became the Twins' No. 2 prospect and appeared in 30 games for the Kernels, batting .250/.286/.408 with 10 doubles, three home runs and 14 RBI. Southpaw Samuel Perez led the team in ERA (2.05) among pitchers with at least 20.0 innings, and right-hander Chase Chaney led in wins (7) and innings pitched (107.2).

LOW-A FORT MYERS (52-73, Florida State League West Division) — The Mighty Mussels placed last out of 10 Florida State League teams. They recorded their first losing season since 2012 when they went 60-75. A .416 winning percentage on the season also marked their lowest since 1993, Fort Myers' second season of affiliated baseball, when they had a .410 win percentage. They ranked last in batting average (.218), runs scored (543), hits (884), doubles (140), triples (16), RBI (475), and OPS (.648). They ranked fourth in stolen bases (236) and T-5th in home runs (81). The pitching staff ranked seventh in ERA (4.48), and strikeouts (1,146), and sixth in home runs allowed (81). 2025 first-round draft pick and No. 6 prospect Marek Houston ranked first in batting average among Mighty Mussels players with at least 20 at-bats (.370), with four doubles, nine RBI and six stolen bases in 12 games with the team. Shortstop Dameury Pena led the team in runs scored (50), hits (89) and RBI (43); and outfielder Yasser Mercedes led in doubles (13), home runs (10) and stolen bases (34). Mercedes' homers and stolen bases both tied for 10th-most in the league. Right-hander Cole Peschl led the team in ERA among pitchers with at least 20.0 innings (1.03), right-hander Eli Jones led in starts (18) and innings pitched (100.0), and right-hander Jason Doktorczyk led in strikeouts (88).

FCL TWINS (39-20, Rookie, Florida Complex League) — The Florida Complex League Twins posted their first winning season since 2019 (.577) and finished with their best winning percentage (.661) since 2007 (.661). They clinched the FCL's South Division and went 1-2 in the best-of-three FCL Championship Series. Offensively, they ranked second out of 15 FCL teams in walks (305), fourth in home runs (29), on-base percentage (.361) and OPS (.689), and eighth in slugging (.328). Their pitching staff posted the sixth-lowest ERA (3.77) in the league and second-highest strikeout-to-walk ratio (2.54) while allowing 21 home runs, tied for the fourth-fewest in the league.
