

AI Overview

The 2021 Minnesota Twins Pass was a mobile-only subscription ticket program that allowed fans to access Target Field for the final 40 regular-season home games (starting July 5, 2021) for a set monthly fee of $59. 5 EYEWITNESS NEWS

Key details regarding the 2021 offer included:

- Access: Provided standing-room/ballpark access, allowing fans to watch from various bars, restaurants, and social spaces in Target Field.
- Validity: Covered home games from July 5 through the end of the 2021 regular season.
- Capacity: The offer coincided with Target Field opening to 100% capacity.
- Restrictions: A limit of five passes per customer was enforced. 5 EYEWITNESS NEWS

Contextual Data (2021 Ticket Info):

- Average Ticket Price: The average ticket price for the 2021 season was $38.88.
- Promotions: The Twins offered $5 tickets for students on Wednesdays, as well as "All You Can Eat" packages on Monday and Tuesday nights. MLB.com +1

Twins to bring back ballpark pass ticket option in July - KSTP
 Jun 24, 2021 — [Minnesota Twins] The Minnesota Twins are bringing back the ballpark pass ticket next month. The popular "Twins Pass" ticket plan ...
 5 EYEWITNESS NEWS

Twins unveil 2021 special events and promotions; single-game ...
 May 19, 2021 — Friday—Friday Night Fireworks presented by Securian Financial: Fans are treated to postgame fireworks following every Friday night...
 MLB.com

