Garagiola, Buck, Carneal, Prince to Air Star Game

TWIN CITIES, Minn. — Joe Garagiola and Jack Buck will handle the televising of the All-Star Game and Herb Carneal and Bob Prince will be at the radio microphones. The classic will be carried by the National Broadcasting Co.

Garagiola is an NBC sportscaster and a member of the Yankee aircasting team. Buck is a member of the Cardinals' broadcasting corps.

Carneal will feel right at home, because his regular job is handling the Twins. Prince is the voice of the Pirates.
