Harmon's Slow First-Half Pace Good Omen, Says Cal

TWIN CITIES, Minn. — Harmon Killebrew registered the slowest first half he has ever had as a slugger for the Twins —producing only 15 homers in defense of his American League crown.

But Twins' President Calvin Griffith said that could be a good omen for the Twins in the pennant race.

"Killebrew always hit most of his homers either in the first half or second half," said Griffith. "This means his big half has yet to come."

Harmon's worst half was in 1960, his sophomore season, when he hit only four the first half for Washington. He wound up with 31. In his rookie season, 1959, he had 27 by July 4 and wound up with 42. In 1961, he hit 25 by July 4 and wound up with 46. In 1962 and 1963, he had 17 by July 4 and hit 48 in 1962 and 45 in '63.

Last year, Harmon had his best start—29 by July 4. He won his third straight crown with 49.

BOSTON AT WASHINGTON (D)—Kline turned in his ninth consecutive shutout relief performance, pitching last two innings, to enable Senators to defeat Red Sox, 5-3. Walk to Hamlin, double by McMullen and pair of infield outs gave Nats two runs in first inning, but Red Sox pulled into tie against Ortega. Senators broke away with two runs in third with double by Kirkland and singles by King, Nen and Lock. Kirkland homered in fifth, offsetting Gosger's circuit clout for Red Sox in seventh.

DETROIT AT KANSAS CITY (N)—Athletics collected only seven hits, but six were for extra bases in attack that beat Tigers, 4-3. After wasting triple by Causey, A's broke 20-inning scoreless pitching string by McLain when Charles doubled and Hersberger tripled in seventh. Rosario homered in eighth and, after Sherry relieved, Causey also hit for circuit to tie score at 3-3. Hersberger led off ninth with his second triple of game. Sherry then walked next two batters intentionally, but effort to set up double play proved futile when Lachemann hit long sacrifice fly to score Hersberger.

Robin Passes Grove, Rixey In Whiffs, Innings Pitched

BALTIMORE, Md. — Robin Roberts gained two milestones in the first game of the Orioles' twin-bill with the White Sox, July 10.

By whiffing two batters, the Oriole righthander raised his career total to 2267, one more than the number credited to Lefty Grove.

In addition, by pitching six innings, the 38-year-old veteran of 18 major league campaigns hiked his total of innings pitched to 4,496 2/3.

Thus, Roberts passed Eppa Rixey's 4,494 and ranks thirteenth on the all-time ranking of leaders in that department.

added counter off Ramos in eighth. Repoz and Lopez hit back-to-back homers for Yankees in second inning of nightcap, but bases-loaded triple by Mincher in fifth helped Twins take 5-4 lead. Repoz singled for his fourth hit of game in eighth inning. Lopez walked and Barker singled to load bases before Boyer greeted arrival of Klippstein with jackpot wallop.
